Edward Bennett Williams
Chairman of the Board and President

Henry J. Peters
Executive Vice-President General Manager

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS

Edward Bennett Williams, world-renowned Washington attorney, officially purchased the Orioles on November 1, '79. At that time, the Orioles had won more games than any other club over more than a generation. In the six seasons that have elapsed in the Williams' administration, the Orioles have maintained that tradition, having again won more games than any other club in baseball.

Despite this distinction, it is a fact that the ballclub has not played up to its normal standard the past two seasons after winning the world championship in '83.

And what has the club done, under the leadership of Mr. Williams and his Executive Vice-President Hank Peters, to correct the deficiencies of these past two years? Plenty!

They have made many changes aimed at eliminating weaknesses and have, in the process, put together one of the most formidable offensive units in baseball today as well as in Orioles history. Last year the pitching surprisingly turned sub-par for no apparent reason. Confident that the quality of the staff effort will return to expectations in '86, Messrs. Williams and Peters are optimistic that Orioles fans are in for another banner season.

The 65-year old Hartford, Connecticut native is no stranger to winning. He's done it for some 40 years in the courtroom and during 20 years as president of the Washington Redskins.

Mr. Williams, the founder and senior partner of the Washington law firm, Williams & Connolly, was a 1941 summa cum laude graduate of Holy Cross College. He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II. Then, upon returning to civilian status, attended Georgetown University Law School where he graduated in '45 and was admitted to the D.C. Bar. He has been a Washington-area resident ever since.

The father of seven children (Joe, Ellen, Bennett, Ned, Dana, Tony, and Kimberly), he lives with his wife, the former Agnes Anne Neill (also a Georgetown University Law School graduate), and family in Potomac, MD.

Mr. Williams taught Criminal Law and Evidence at Georgetown Law School from 1946 to 1958; was guest professor of American Criminal Law at the University of Frankfurt in West Germany in '54; and, in '71, as visiting lecturer at Yale University Law School where he taught Constitutional Litigation. He holds honorary degrees from 12 universities.

He was chairman of the American Bar Association Special Committee on Crime Prevention and Control from 1970 to 1972. In 1966, the D.C. Bar Association presented him with it's "Lawyer of the Year" award . . . He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was a member of its board of regents from 1968 to 1972.

By appointment of the Chief Justice of the United States in March 1965, Mr. Williams served on the U.S. Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Federal Rules of Evidence until 1974 and, from 1971 to 1974, on the Chief Justice's Committee on Court Facilities and Design.

From 1971 to 1978, he served as chairman of the Judicial Nomination Commission for the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

By appointment of President Gerald Ford, Mr. Williams served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in 1976 and 1977. In 1977, President Jimmy Carter appointed him a consultant to the National Security Agency (NSA) . . . In November 1980, President-elect Ronald Reagan appointed Mr. Williams, as one of three prominent Democrats, to serve on the the Foreign Policy Advisory Board to assist in the presidential transition. From '82 to '85, he again served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, and is presently General Counsel to the Board.

Mr. Williams was treasurer of the Democratic National Committee from 1974 to 1977; has served as general counsel of Georgetown University since 1949; is chairman of the board of trustees of Holy Cross College; is general counsel of the Motion Picture Association of America.

HANK PETERS

Henry J. (Hank) Peters has been the Orioles' executive vice president and general manager for the last 10 seasons, since he signed a 5-year contract in November, 1975. At that time, he replaced J. Frank Cashen who had resigned to join the Carling National Brewery.

As an indication of his success with the Orioles, Hank's contract was extended for another 5 years (thru '84) after the '79 season, and was extended again 2 years ago for another 5 years (thru '89).

A veteran of 39 years in professional baseball, Hank has twice earned major league "executive of the year" honors ('79, '83) from THE SPORTING NEWS, and won UPI's major league executive award in '79 as well.

The 61-year old (Sep. 16, '24) St. Louis native has shown an amazing ability to adjust to the abrupt and rapid changes that have affected player-management relations during the past several years. It has been an invaluable asset.

Hank came to Baltimore after 4 years as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the governing body of minor league baseball). Before accepting that position in Dec, '71, he had spent 5 years with the Cleveland Indians as vice-president for player personnel.

Prior to that, he had worked with the Kansas City A's for a decade. During his tenure in Kansas City, he had the distinction of being the last general manager appointed by club-owner Charles O. Finley (who later became his own gm). He has also worked with the St. Louis Browns and Cincinnati Reds.

He first broke into baseball in '46 after serving 3 years in the U.S. Army in World War II during which he was stationed in England, Germany and Czechoslovakia.

He got his start with the hometown Browns in the minor league department, working for Farm Director Jim McLaughlin, who later served the Orioles in the same capacity (and still lives in Baltimore), and Bill DeWitt, the general manager.

When the franchise was moved to Baltimore in Oct. '53, Hank took a job as general manager of the independent Burlington, Iowa club in the Class B Three-I League.

After the '54 season, he joined the new Kansas City A's (who had just moved from Philadelphia) as farm director, and remained in that position thru '60. In early '61, following a disagreement with owner Finley, Hank resigned and spent the balance of the season working again for DeWitt (then gm at Cin.), as farm director of the Reds who won the N.L. pennant that season.

However, in Dec. '61, he returned to the A's as assistant general manager/farm director. In '65, he was appointed general manager, and during his tenure such future stars as "Catfish" Hunter, Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando, Joe Rudi, Rick Monday, Gene Tenace, and Rollie Fingers were signed and developed in the A's farm system.

Hank moved to Cleveland in '66 and remained there until he was elected to succeed the retiring National Association President Phil Piton. At the time, the National Association was headquartered in Columbus, OH, but in Sep. '73, Hank moved the office to its present site, in St. Petersburg, FL.

He and his wife, Dottie, whom he met while both were working for the Browns, have been married for 35 years . . . They have 2 children: Sharon and Steve, and 2 grandchildren: Shannon Nicole Torrez, born Dec. 12, '80, and Christopher Henry Peters, born on Oct. 16, '83, the day the Orioles won the '83 World Series.

*Major League Record

2 MILLION, 3RD STRAIGHT YEAR: The O's exceeded 2 million and set a club record in home attendance, both for the 3rd straight year. The '85 figure of 2,132,387 broke the '84 standard by 86,456.

In all, 11 of the 26 big league teams drew over 2 million at home last year, but only 4 have done so for at least the past 3 years. In addition to the O's: Dodgers (13 straight 2 million seasons), and the Cardinals and Angels who have drawn 2 million plus for 4 consecutive seasons.

The Cubs and O's were the only 2 million clubs who didn't finish in the top 3 in their divisions.

O'S HAVE BEST RECORD IN MAJORS

Over the Last 30 Years

During the last 30 years ('56 thru '85), the Orioles have won more games than any other club in the major league while also compiling the best won—lost record. The O's in those 3 decades have won 2,667 games and forged a .563 percentage (598 games over .500).

Despite back-to-back mediocre seasons ('84-'85) during which they are only a composite 13 games above .500, the O's hold a 12 game edge over the Yankees in the 30 year period.

Their first 2 Baltimore seasons ('54 & '55), the O's were 111-197 (.360) . . . They improved in '56 (69-85), and really began to jell in '57 (76-76), their first .500 season in Baltimore.

Listed below are the records of the 16 clubs that have played during the entire 30 year period:

1. Orioles . . . . . 2667-2069, .563
2. Yankees . . . . 2661-2087, .560
3. Dodgers . . . . 2633-2124, .554
4. Reds . . . . . 2583-2162, .544
5. Tigers . . . . . 2491-2263, .52398
6. Pirates . . . . . 2483-2258, .52372
7. Cards . . . . . 2479-2263, .523
8. Red Sox . . . . 2455-2295, .517
9. White Sox . . . 2424-2323, .511
10. Giants . . . . . 2444-2334, .509
11. Braves . . . . . 2395-2350, .505
12. Phillies . . . . . 2336-2411, .492
13. Twins, nee Senators . . . . 2318-2473, .489
14. Indians . . . . . 2264-2473, .478
15. A's . . . . . 2217-2536, .466
16. Cubs . . . . . 2206-2535, .465

Since O's Moved from St. Louis in '54

Over the last 32 campaigns dating back to 1954, the year the O's began operating in Baltimore (after moving from St. Louis the previous winter), the Birds rank 3rd in the majors (2778-2266, .551) behind the Yankees (2860-2194, .566) and the Dodgers (2823-2241, .557).

Since Start of Divisional Play

In 17 years of divisional play which was initiated in 1969, the O's lead the majors with a record of 1572-1104, .587. The Dodgers are 2nd (1503-1191, .558), followed by: (3) Cincinnati (1491-1198, .55448); (4) Yankees (1488-1196, .55440), and (5) Boston (1458-1229, .543).

During Edward Bennett Williams' Tenure as O's Owner

In the 6 seasons that have elapsed since Edward Bennett Williams officially purchased the Orioles (starting '80), the Birds are also tops in the big leagues with 519 wins, ahead of the Yankees (516), Dodgers (508), and Tigers (507).

The O's with 896 wins in the last decade (starting '76) are 2nd only to the Yankees (902) in that span among the 26 teams . . . In the last 5 years, the Birds have won 419 games and trail only the Tigers (423).

OVERALL RANK: In both overall attendance and average, the Orioles ranked 6th in the A.L. and 11th in the majors . . . The O's averaged 26,654 per home date, 2nd highest in club history (behind '84, 26,918).

BIG CROWDS: In '85 the O's drew between 20,000 and 29,000 28 times; between 30 ,000 and 39,000 on 22 occasions, and 40,000 or more on 6 dates . . . Some 23,000 tickets were sold at the stadium on the day of the Sat., May 11th nite game vs. Twins. The attendance that evening was 49,094. It was 2nd only to the 49,388 that attended Opening Day.

The largest "walk-up" sale in O's history was 31,626 for a May 9, '71 week night game matching Vida Blue vs. Jim Palmer . . . The total that night was 43,307.

100,000+ SERIES: Memorial Stadium was host to 9 series which attracted 100,000 or more, the most ever in one season (8 was previous high in '83). The O's and White Sox played the best attended series of the year in Baltimore. A total of 149,455 showed up for the 4-game set July 11-14, 5th highest in club history at home.

The 120,207 total for an April (25-28) set with the Indians was good for 2 milestones: (1) It was the O's 1st ever 100,000 series at home in April, (2) and the first ever against the Indians in Baltimore.

In 32 years, the club has played to a total of 47 series attracting 100,000+ fans, 36 of them in the last 7 years, starting in 1979.

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Six different Orioles have hit 30 or more home runs in a season 15 different times. In '85, Eddie Murray did it for the fourth time tying Boog Powell for the club's all-time high. Frank Robinson accomplished the feat three times. Jim Gentile twice and Gus Triandos and Ken Singleton once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when he hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that stood for 24 years until Detroit's Lance Parrish broke it in '82.

By Year: 1958–Triandos (30) . . . 1961–Gentile (46) . . . 1962–Gentile (33) . . . 1964–Powell (39) . . . 1966–F. Robinson (49) and Powell (34) . . . 1967–F. Frank Robinson is the only Oriole to have led the league outright in homers (49 in '66). Murray tied three others for A.L. top honors with 22 during the abbreviated '81 season.

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs . . . Then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, seven different players have driven in 100 runs 17 times; Eddie Murray (5 times); Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks and Frank Robinson, Ken Singleton and Cal Ripken (twice); Lee May (once).

By Year: 1961–Gentile (141) . . . 1964–Brooks (118)* . . . 1966–Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100) . . . 1969–Powell (121) and Frank (100) . . . 1970–Powell, (114) . . . 1976–May (109) . . . 1979–Singleton (111) . . . 1980–Murray (116) and Singleton (104) . . . 1982–Murray (110) . . . 1983–Murray (111) and Ripken (102) . . . 1984–Murray (110) . . . 1985–Murray (124) and Ripken (110).

NOTE: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's Led Majors Last 5 Years: The O's have led the major leagues (or tied for the lead) in grand slams in each of the past five years: '81 (5); '82 (8); '83 (8—tied with Angels); '84 (8); '85 (7).

In that span, the O's have hit 36 grand slams while the Angels rank 2nd with 23, followed by Pittsburgh (18) and Boston (16). Over the five years, O's pitchers have yielded only 12 bases loaded home runs, including 3 in '85.

Home & Road: In '81-'82, the O's hit 13 slams, 12 of them at Memorial Stadium, but in the last 3 years have hit 16 on the road and only 7 at home.

Eddie Murray has already hit 12 grand slams, including 3 last year, in his 9 year career and ranks in a 6-way tie for 11th place on the all-time list (see Murray's biog for the complete list), topped by Lou Gehrig's 28. Only one active player, Dave Kingman (14) has more, and the Mets' George Foster also has 12.

Thru the Years: In 32 years ('54-'85), the O's have "out-slammed" their opponents 123-69 (including a 64-31 advantage at Baltimore).

Gentile Hit Record 5 in '61: Jim Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at bats. In both situations, two of them were Orioles: Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota on May 9, '61 (Metropolitan Stadium off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Stadium in Washington (off Joe Coleman, Jr. and Joe Grzenda).

Another Oriole who came close was Brooks Robinson who, in 1962 on May 6 (Dodger Stadium) and May 9 (Memorial Stadium), hit bases loaded homers in back-to-back games.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time, and both did it in 1970. In game one of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in the 3rd game of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas) . . . Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: Seven opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's. Nobody has hit more . . . Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Was.), Moose Skowron (N.Y.), Mike Epstein (Was.).

There have been 10 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters, including three still active: Aurelio Lopez (Det.) to John Lowenstein ('83) and Mike Young ('84), both at Detroit; Don Aase (Cal.) to Lee May ('79) and Doug DeCinces ('81), both at Baltimore; Lamarr Hoyt (Chi.) to Terry Crowley ('80) and DeCinces ('81), both at Baltimore.

Orioles "Gophers:" Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore while Dave McNally was victimized 4 times. On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings. Among current O's, Dennis Martinez has thrown up the most—3.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 18 years (starting '68), far and away the most in the majors over that period.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24–first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24–2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

This award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland to the most valuable Oriole player by vote of sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the team on a regular basis.

In 1985, Eddie Murray won the award for the 5th time in a row and the sixth time in his 9-year career ('78, '81, thru '85). Only one other Oriole, Brooks Robinson, has won it more than 3 times. Robinson earned the honor 4 times ('60, '62, '64 and '71).

Murray received nine of a possible 15 first place votes while amassing 63 points in the 5-3-1 scoring system. Cal Ripken, with two first place votes and a total of 36, was second to Murray in the voting.

Mike Young was third with 3 first place votes and a total of 23 points, while Floyd Rayford was fourth with 20 points (one first place vote). Fred Lynn was the only other Oriole named on a ballot. He received one point.

Notes: For only the 3rd time in the last 26 seasons, an Oriole player did not win a Gold Glove last year ('80 and '81 were the other years without one). At one point the O's had a string of 20 straight seasons ('60 thru '79) with at least one Gold Glove. The club has received four in a season five times, three awards twice and two in six different seasons.

With a total of 48 Gold Gloves since the inception of the award in '57, the Orioles lead the majors. St. Louis, which had two winners in '85 is second with 43. Other leaders are Cincinnati–37, New York Yankees–35, Pittsburgh–32, and Philadelphia and Boston–31 each.

Eddie Murray had won 3 consecutive Gold Gloves prior to '85. Only George Scott and Vic Power (7) have won the award more times among American League first basemen. The only Baltimore first baseman to win a Gold Glove, Eddie is the seventh Oriole to win at least three.

Other Orioles who have been multiple winners are: Brooks Robinson–16 (tied with Jim Kaat for most ever by one player); Paul Blair and Mark Belanger–8 each; Jim Palmer and Bobby Grich–4 each; Dave Johnson–3; and Luis Aparicio–2.

The Gold Glove Awards are presented by The Sporting News in cooperation with the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to those players considered to be the best at their positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e. fielding percentage) but also on range, overall ability, and effectiveness.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have been shutout in that department the last six years.

The Birds' last two triple plays ('78 & '79) were of the "around the horn" variety involving Doug DeCinces, Rich Dauer, and Eddie Murray. Brooks Robinson started the other three Orioles' "around the horn" triple plays.

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell"gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray).

Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray).

Jun. 3, '77—at K.C.—John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.

Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).

Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).

Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eliseo Rodriguez "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).

Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive . . . 3-6-3 (Boyd, Carrasquel, Boyd).

Aug. 3, '55—vs.K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gitp" then runner was thrown out at home . . . 3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 32 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

THE BIRDS AND THE BROWNS

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons, the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in '02 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons ('02 thru '53) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the 2nd division 40 times. They won their only pennant in '44 then lost the world series in 6 games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

EASY MAGIC NUMBER FORMULAS

This one suggested by veteran Baltimore EVENING SUN baseball writer, Jim Henneman: Add trailing clubs' losses to leading team's wins . . . Subtract the sum from 162, then add one . . . That is your magic number.

This one from a Baltimore baseball fan, Michael McCoy: Subtract the leader's wins and the trailing team's losses from 163, i.e. Magic Number = 163 – LW – TL.

After 11 straight days in first, however, the O's were nudged out of the top spot by Toronto on May 13 and except for two days (May 17, 19) when the O's shared first place with the Jays, no other team was in first in the A.L. East the remainder of the '85 season.

After May 26, the O's could get no closer than 4 games out of first, the latest was June 18. The Orioles last occupied 2nd place on June 9, and then after a 2-day hold on third, they spent 83 of the next 86 days in either 4th or 5th place.

The Birds regained 3rd place on Sep. 6 and held it the remainder of the month. However on the final day of the regular season, the Tigers clubbed the O's 11-3 breaking a 3rd place tie between the 2 clubs. DOUBLEHEADERS: The Orioles participated in only 5 doubleheaders, matching the club record for fewest ever ('80 and '84) and failed to win a twinbill for the first time in the club's history. The Birds lost 2 twin bills and split 3 giving them a 3-7 record (.300) in doubleheader games. Only Texas (1-3) had a lower pct. in the A.L. Baltimore went 9-2-2 in doubleheaders during the '83 and '84 seasons combined.

For comparison's sake: In '55, the O's played a club record 32 doubleheaders.

Individuals: Cal Ripken, who for the 3rd consecutive season played every inning of every game at shortstop, led all A.L. shortstops in putouts (286) and double plays (123) and was 2nd to Tony Fernandez in successful total chances (760) and assists (474). His .967 fielding pct. (786 tc, 26 e) was 4th in the A.L. among qualifying shortstops.

Rich Dauer finished the '85 season with a .9875 (4512 tc, 57 e) career fielding mark at 2nd base, well above the existing A.L. record for highest pct. (.984 held by 4 others). Dauer, however, with 9 years and 965 career games at 2nd, is shy of meeting the 10 years or 1,000 games qualifying standards.

Fred Lynn was 4th in the A.L. in fielding among qualifying outfielders with a .994 pct. (322 tc, 2 e).

Mike Boddicker was 2nd in the A.L. in double plays by pitchers (6), 3rd in total chances (74), 4th in assists (46) and 5th in putouts (26), despite missing 3 starts due to injury. He led the majors in successful chances in '84 (96).

Storm Davis didn't commit an error in his 31 appearances (35 tc's). Only Detroit's Dan Petry (62 tc), K.C.'s Mark Gubicza (49 tc) and Minnesota's Bert Blyleven (49 tc) handled more chances without an error.

HOME AND AWAY: The Orioles were tied for 6th in the A.L. with a 45-36 (.556) record at home. The Orioles have had a winning record at home for 13 straight seasons and 27 of their 32 seasons in Baltimore. It was the 2nd straight year (and only their 2nd since '76) that the club has fallen below a .600 winning pct. at Memorial Stadium.

The O's were 38-42 (.475) on the road marking only the 2nd time in the last 18 seasons (starting '68) that the team has been below .500 in away games.

HOME RUNS: The Orioles hit a club record 214 home runs, tops in the majors and the 7th highest total in major league history. The previous club record was 181 in '79. The Tigers were 2nd with 202. It was the first time in history that two clubs in the same league hit 200 home runs in the same season.

The O's 214 homers accounted for 43% of their total run production (355 of 818). The Birds also hit a club record 103 homers at home and the combined total of Orioles and opponents home runs at Memorial Stadium was 190, also a record.

Baltimore hit 3 or more in a game 25 times; 7-once; 6-once; 5-once; 4-four times; three-18 times. They tied a club record with 7 hrs in one game at California on Aug. 26. Cleveland and Detroit felt the Orioles home run power most. The Birds hit 26 against each.

Clubs With 200 Home Runs in One Season: 1.) '61 Yankees, 240; 2.) '63 Twins, 225; 3.) '47 N.Y. Giants, 221; 4.) '56 Reds, 221; 5.) '64 Twins, 221; 6.) '82 Brewers, 216; 7.) '85 Orioles, 214; 8.) '55 Brooklyn Dodgers, 201.

Orioles with 10 Or More: A total of 9 Orioles hit 10 or more homers tying a major league record with 9 other clubs. Lee Lacy hit his 8th and 9th homers on Aug. 25, then went without a homer over his last 31 games.

Grand Slams: The Birds also led the majors with 7 grand slams. It marked the 5th straight season the O's have led or tied for the major league lead in grand slams ('81 thru '85). The Orioles have hit 36 grand slams during that span, 13 more than the closest team (California, 23).

Eddie Murray led the club with 3 grand slams and rookie Fritz Connally, who was subsequently sent to Rochester, became the 7th player in big league history to make his first 2 major league homers both grand slams. Murray now has 12 lifetime, tied for 2nd among major league actives with George Foster (Mets) behind the A's Dave Kingman (15).

Pinch Hit Homers: The Orioles also topped the A.L. in pinch hit homers with 6, one more than Minnesota and Detroit and one less than major league leader Chicago (Cubs).

INJURIES: Orioles pitchers were hit hardest by injuries beginning with Mike Flanagan, who ruptured his left Achilles tendon in a charity basketball game on Jan. 23. Flanagan missed the entire first half of the season and was not activated until July 20.

Rookie reliever Nate Snell was on the disabled list for one month after he suffered a broken rib on his right side when he was struck by a line drive off the bat of Minnesota's Mike Stenhouse on July 9. Snell was activated on Aug. 8.

Mike Boddicker missed his last 3 starts while suffering from tendinitis in his left knee, an injury that nagged him throughout his last 4 outings. Storm Davis also missed his last 3 starts after Mike Pagliarulo's line drive hit him on the right wrist in a game against the Yankees on Sep. 21. Davis suffered nerve and tendon damage to the wrist.

Tippy Martinez, for the 2nd straight year, was plagued by a sore left shoulder. Tippy was left particularly ineffective the first half of '85. He received a cortisone shot at the all-star break which alleviated much of the pain in the 2nd half.

Rick Dempsey missed 3 games after suffering a bruised left shoulder in a collision at home with Seattle's Jim Presley on Sep. 1. Dan Ford aggravated his left knee in a pre-game mishap on June 8 and was placed on the disabled list for the remainder of the season. He was operated on July 17 and spent the rest of the season at his home in California.

Lee Lacy tore a ligament in his right thumb in an exhibition game vs. Montreal on March 12. He was placed on the disabled list on March 28 underwent surgery on April 3. Lacy missed 28 regular season games before returning on May 13.

Fred Lynn tore ligaments in his left ankle in Minnesota on July 22, but continued to play until he reinjured it in Oakland on Aug. 24. Lynn missed more than 3 weeks before returning on Sep. 16. He was also bothered periodically by muscle spasms in his lower back, an injury which originally occurred on June 28 in Boston. He missed approximately 10 games throughout the year due to the back injury.

Joe Nolan was put on the disabled list on July 2 with chronically sore knees and remained at his home in St. Louis the rest of the season. John Shelby tore cartilage in his rib cage during the pre-game practice on Sep. 24 and appeared in only one game the final 2 weeks of '85.

MANAGERIAL CHANGE: Before he was dismissed, Joe Altobelli managed the Orioles thru June 12, compiling a 29-26 record. Cal Ripken, Sr., served as interim manager on June 13 and was winner in his one game. Earl Weaver began his 2nd tour with the club on June 14 and the O's went 53-52 thru the rest of '85.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April: 12-7 (8-2 at home); May: 14-12 (5-4 at home); June: 11-15 (7-8 at home); July: 14-14 (7-10 at home); Aug.: 16-11 (8-3 at home); Sep./Oct.: 16-19 (10-9 at home).

PINCH HITTING: For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles pinch hitters were the busiest in the A.L. with 264 plate appearances. O's pinch swingers, however, managed only a .186 (220-41) collective batting average, a 70 point drop from '84. The O's were 11th in pinch hitting average in the A.L., but did lead the league with 6 pinch homers.

Baltimore pinch hitters were also first in the A.L. in at bats (219), runs (29), total bases (72), doubles (tied, 9), triples (2), sac flies (6), walks (36) and strikeouts (49).

Larry Sheets and Wayne Gross hit back-to-back pinch home runs on Aug. 12 off Cleveland's Jerry Reed, tying a major league record. The last time the Orioles did it was on Aug. 26, '66 when Boog Powell and Vic Roznovsky both homered off Boston's Lee Stange.

Individuals: Larry Sheets' 2 pinch hit home runs tied 4 others for the league lead. Gary Roenicke was the A.L.'s 3rd busiest pinch hitter with 40 plate appearances. Jim Dwyer tied for 3rd in the A.L. for most pinch hit rbi (8). Lee Lacy (.500, 4-2, 0 hr, 0 rbi) and Mike Young (.333, 18-6, 0 hr, 4 rbi) were the O's most successful pinch hitters.

Others: Gary Roenicke, .103 (29-3), 0 hr, 3 rbi; Wayne Gross, .241 (29-7), 1 hr, 1 rbi; Jim Dwyer, .192 (26-5) 0 hr, 8 rbi; Joe Nolan, .091 (22-2), 0 hr, 0 rbi; Fritz Connally, .313 (16-5), 0 hr, 2 rbi; Larry PITCHING: The Orioles 4.38 era, 8th in the A.L., was the highest in club history, breaking the old mark of 4.21 established in '55. O's hurlers also set new highs for runs allowed with 763 (previous high-754 in '55); hits allowed with 1,480 (previous high- 754 in '55); and home runs allowed with 160 (previous high- 147 in '62 and '82). Likewise, opponents batted .270 (1480-5491), the highest mark ever against the Orioles.

The 32 complete games were the least by an Oriole staff (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since '67 (29). The O's threw only 6 shutouts, lowest total since '54 when they also had 6. Their 568 walks were the most allowed since '61 (617) and 4th highest total in the O's history.

The O's trailed after the first inning 52 times and went 20-32 in those games. They allowed at least one run in the first inning on 62 occasions for a total of 117 runs. O's starters failed to get past 4 innings on 41 occasions (O's were 9-32 in those games).

The Birds staff had a 4.38 era thru 85 first half games and the same mark thru 76 2nd half games. O's starters were 60-60 with a 4.69 era (946.2 ip/493 er) while relievers were 23-18 with a 3.76 era (480.2 ip/201 er).

Since '54, O's pitchers have combined for the 2nd lowest era in the A.L. with a 3.393 mark (42,677.1 ip/16,091 er) to the Yankees' 3.391 (42,728.2 ip/16,102 er).

STREAKS: In '85, the O's longest winning and losing streaks were each 6 games. The O's won 6 in a row (Aug. 13-19) and lost 6 straight (Sep. 28-Oct. 3).

WINS: Although they finished with their lowest victory total (excluding the abbreviated seasons of '72 and '81) and winning pct. since '67 (76-85, .472), the Orioles did post their 18th consecutive winning season, giving them the longest current streak of its kind, the 2nd longest in major league history behind the Yankees' all-time record of 39 consecutive winning campaigns from '29 thru '64.

With 85 wins in '84 and 83 in '85, the Orioles failed to win 90 games in consecutive seasons for the first time since '62-'63. The Birds also finished below 2nd place in consecutive seasons for the first time since '64-'65.

Baltimore has still won more games than any team in the majors over the past 30 years (starting '56) with a 2667-2069 (.563) record. The Yankees are 2nd with a 2661-2087 slate (.561). See page 00 for more details.

REVIEW OF ORIOLES' 1985 SEASON

For the Orioles, the 1985 Season, was perhaps best characterized by five principal elements: (1) Personnel changes; (2) A fast start and a slow finish; (3) Prolific scoring and home run production, that smashed existing team standards; (4) The least efficient pitching in the team's 32 Baltimore based seasons; (5) Club record home attendance in excess of 2,000,000 for the third straight year.

A YEAR OF TRANSITION

The turnover in Orioles uniformed personnel between the end of the '84 season and Dec. '85, a period of 14 months, was extensive. So much so that by the end of that span, less than half of the players who had worn the Orioles colors in the '83 World Series remained on the scene.

Thirteen players, a manager and two coaches had departed, to be replaced by a like number of newcomers in a major re-building project.

Perhaps it all started when Jim Palmer stepped down in May '84, but the program took on steam at the end of that season. Two other Orioles legends, the veterans Al Bumbry and Ken Singleton were not re-signed, and neither was Benny Ayala nor Tom Underwood.

Long time batting instructor Ralph Rowe moved on and was replaced by the O's former pinch-hitting specialist Terry Crowley. Another former Oriole of legendary distinction, Frank Robinson, also re-joined the club's coaching staff.

In the meantime, the O's went out into the free agent market and acquired talented veterans Fred Lynn, Lee Lacy and Don Aase.

Todd Cruz didn't make the spring training cut, and early in the seaon Joe Nolan & John Lowenstein retired and Dan Ford played his last for the Orioles.

Four rookies helped take up the slack. On opening day, Fritz Connally, Larry Sheets, Ken Dixon and Nate Snell were among the 25, and, by the time Connally had been sent down to Rochester, rookie catching prospect Al Pardo had been re-called.

Joe Altobelli who had been at the helm in '83 when the O's won their 3rd world championship was replaced in mid-June by Earl Weaver. A week later Ray Miller left to manage the Minnesota Twins and minor league pitching instructor Ken Rowe was promoted to plug the gap.

Soon after that, the O's signed fleet footed 2nd baseman Alan Wiggins, adding some badly needed speed to the offense.

The changes continued into the off-season. Two veteran infielders, Rich Dauer and Lenn Sakata, were not re-signed. General Manager Hank Peters traded Gary Roenicke to the Yankees for pitcher Rich Bordi and infielder Rex Hudler. Then he sent the O's long-time long reliever Sammy Stewart to the Red Sox for infielder Jackie Gutierrez.

By the time opening day rolls around, other changes are likely as the Orioles continue to make the moves designed to thrust them back into the mainstream of the pennant race from which they've been absent the past 2 seasons.

FAST START, SLOW FINISH

After a deliberately Spartan spring training regimen designed to counter the club's decade long propensity for desultory regular season starts, the O's won their first 4 games, and went on to post an 18-9 record by May 11th. At that point, they were tops in the tough eastern division.

It was the Birds' most bullish start in years. Unfortunately, it didn't last. They went 65-69 the rest of the way while posting the club's lowest won-lost percentage since '67 (83-78), .516.

However, it was also the 18th consecutive season the Orioles had logged a winning record, a feat surpassed by only one franchise, the New York Yankees whose 39 straight winning campaigns from '26 thru '64 constitute the major league record.

And, despite being out of the pennant race down the stretch, Orioles fans set a club attendance record for the 3rd straight year while exceeding 2 million at home, also for the 3rd season in a row.

A SCORING MACHINE

The O's scored a whopping 818 runs (topping the previous club record of 805 set in '80). In that category they were 2nd in the majors, to the Yankees' 839.

In home runs, the Birds were second to none. In fact, their 214 homers ranked 7th on the all-time list (the '61 Yankees top the ledger at 240). Among those many long balls were 7 grand slams, enabling the O's to lead the majors in that category for the 5th straight year.

The long ball power helped produce runs in clusters as illustrated by the fact that on 29 different occasions they scored 5 runs or more in an inning, and 75 times they scored 5 or more in a game. The O's also set club records in total bases (2370) and slugging percentage (.430).

PITCHING PROBLEMS

With an 18-9 start, un-precedented power and scoring capacity, why did the O's play at less than a .500 pace for the last 5 months of the season?

Though it might be something of an over simplification, the appropriate one-word answer is "pitching".

The Orioles, whose distinction of being the winningest club in the majors over the past 30 years is probably due more to pitching than to any other single commodity, were out of character. It was eerie, like celebrating Halloween all-season long.

The staff's community effort resulted in several significant negative club records: highest era (4.38), most runs and earned runs yielded (764 & 694), most hits (1480) and most home runs balls (160).

The opposition combined to hit .270 vs. the O's as the Birds recorded their lowest totals in shutouts (6) since '54, fewest complete games (32) since '67 and most walks (568) since '61. The O's trailed after the 1st inning 52 times and went 20-32 in those games. When their starters failed to get past 4 innings as they did on 41 different occasions, the Birds went 9-32.

Perhaps the following statistic best illustrates the O's primary conflict, their ability to score contrasted by their inability to keep the other fellow from following suit: When the O's scored 5 or more runs, they went 61-14, (.813). But, when they scored 4 runs or less, they were a mere 21-64 (.247).

INDIVIDUAL ACCOLADES

Both Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken scored and drove in more than 100 runs each (interesting sidelight: though their combined total of stolen bases was 7, they both out-scored the Cardinals' rookie speedster Vince Coleman who swiped 110).

Ripken also played every inning of every game to extend his totals to 5457 innings (believed to be a major league record) and 603 games.

Floyd Rayford effectively patched up a problem at 3rd base (.306 average, 18 hr) and also doubled as a solid back-up catcher to Rick Dempsey.

Dempsey set career highs in both rbi (52) and home runs (12).

Lee Lacy, whose opening day was 5 weeks late because of a spring training hand injury, hit .300 most of the year before a late-season slump deflated the final figure to .293.

Sophomore Mike Young came into his own (28 homers, 81 rbi)), trailed only Murray and Ripken in productivity and enjoyed a single month (August) like no other Oriole before him (32 rbi, 11 homers).

Fred Lynn played an excellent centerfield (though his "Rambo" style perhaps made him more vulnerable to injury), and specialized in 9th inning homers, 6 of them in total (and 3 of those game-winners) before his wounds caught up with him in late season.

Accolades are also appropriate in the cases of 3 relievers: newcomer Don Aase who shook off a shaky start to become the club's top short man (10-6, 14 saves); 32-year old rookie Nate Snell who was on a season long roll until a line drive broke a rib on July 9th, and Sammy Stewart who was the O's top reliever in the early months before succumbing to late-season blahs.

The rookie Ken Dixon also deserves plaudits for his 9-3 record as a starter. His 4.00 era in that capacity was the lowest on the staff among starters.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS/LOWLIGHTS

Apr. 8 . . . Opening Day: The O's didn't get their 1st '85 hit until the 7th inning but still led the Rangers' 2-1 thanks to Charlie Hough's 8 walks and 2 Don Slaught passed balls. Rangers tied in 8th, but Eddie Murray won it with a 2-run homer off loser Dave Rozema in the bottom of the 8th.

Apr. 19 . . . Connally's First Grand Slam: Rookie Fritz Connally whose first 2 major league home runs were grand slams hit his first at Toronto off Doyle Alexander on the 14th pitch thrown to him in that plate appearance. Connally fouled off 9 pitches before connecting to give O's 4-1 lead in 5th, but O's lost 6-5.

May 5 . . . Rip goes 5-for-6 vs. Twins: The day after he broke Brooks Robinson's club record for consecutive games played, Rip enjoyed a big day at the Metrodome while going 5-for-6 with 4 rbi. The O's won 10-5, beating nemesis John Butcher for the first time ever after 5 straight losses to the Twins right-hander.

May 10-11-12 . . . Lynn vs. Twins: Lynn sent fans home happy 2 nights in a row (May 10 & 11) with game-winning "sudden death" 9th inning homers, off Ron Davis and Curt Wardle respectively (Davis was the loser both nights). Those 2 victories put the O's in 1st place with an 18-9 record.

No Oriole had ever won 2 games in a row with "sudden death" homers though Dick Kryhoski ('54) and John Stefero ('83) had broken up consecutive games with game-ending singles.

The next afternoon, Lynn delivered a home run in the 9th inning for the 3rd straight time, though this time the O's were well behind and lost 7-3.

Jun. 3 . . . Lacy's First A.L. Homer: Lee Lacy chose the right time for his 1st A.L. homer. It was a 2-run bottom of the 9th inning shot off the Angels' ace reliever Donnie Moore to rightfield climaxing a 4-run rally enabling O's to beat California 7-5 after entering the final inning with a 5-3 deficit.

Jun. 4 . . . Longest A.L. Game of Year: It took the Angels 5:04 and 15 innings in Baltimore to put the O's away 6-5 on Mike Brown's single off loser Ken Dixon . . . It was longest game by time in A.L. and matched the Red Sox-Angels game of Apr. 30 at Anaheim as longest by innings.

Jun. 10 . . . Lacy's Broken Bat Homer: Lacy led off game at Tiger Stadium with a broken bat home run to the opposite field (right), a rare if not unique occurrence, off Jack Morris. The Tigers insisted on an inspection of Lacy's bat, but no foreign substances were found.

Lacy, in one of most exciting games of year, also hit a home run off Aurelio Lopez in the top of the 11th to give the O's a one run-lead but the Tigers then rallied in the home half to win on Barbaro Garbey's lead off homer and a subsequent game-winning single by Lance Parrish.

Earlier Parrish's 7th inning homer off Tippy who had just relieved Dennis had tied the game at 5 . . . With 2 down in the 9th and the O's trailing by one, Floyd Rayford homered off Willie Hernandez to tie the game again.

Jun. 12 . . . Alto's Last Game: The O's dropped their 5th in a row, 6-2 to the Tigers at Detroit, and Joe Altobelli was relieved the following day. At the time, the O's were 29-26, in 4th place, 8 games behind.

Jun. 14 . . . Earl's Return: After Cal Ripken Sr. guided the O's to an 8-3 win over Milwaukee in Baltimore on Thursday the 13th, Earl Weaver returned to the helm against the same opponent he faced in his final game before retiring, on Oct. 3, '82, the Brewers.

Earl got a good look at the O's biggest problem in the very first inning (pitching) when starter Storm Davis spotted Milwaukee a 3-0 lead on 43 first inning pitches. However, Storm settled down and threw only 82 more over the last 8 innings as the O's came from behind to win 7-5.

Just as his big power man, Boog Powell, stole 2nd in the first inning of Earl's big league debut in July, '68, so did Eddie Murray in the opening inning of his return.

There were 3 in uniform for the comeback who had been in the starting lineup for the '68 debut: Frank Robinson, Andy Etchebarren and Frank Howard (for the Senators) . . . Some 14,000 "walk-up" tickets were sold for Earl's homecoming.

Jul. 11 . . . Lynn does it Again: Lynn's 2-out 3-run homer off Chicago's Mike Stanton in the bottom of the 9th capped a 4-run rally that gave the O's a 7-6 win over the Sox. It was Lynn's sixth 9th inning homer of the year and his 3rd "sudden death" game winner (see more details on that game under "vs. Chicago" on page 43).

Jul. 13 . . . Near Miss vs. ChiSox: Trailing Chicago's Britt Burns 9-0 after 4½ innings, the O's scored 8 times over next 2 frames, but could get no closer. After that Burns stiffened, and went the route, winning 9-8 on a 144 pitch effort. Gary Roenicke hit 2 homers, one a grand slam, to account for 6 rbi. Carlton Fisk and Tony LaRussa were both ejected.

Aug. 21 . . . 10-Run Inning: The O's tied a club record by scoring 10 runs in the 3rd inning at Seattle and led 10-0, then held on to win 11-8.

Aug. 23 . . . Late Foot at Oakland: Held scoreless on one hit by the A's Jose Rijo and Steve Mura thru 8 innings the O's scored 7 times in the top of the 9th to beat the A's and their relief ace Jay Howell, 7-2.

Aug. 26 . . . Eddie's Big Night at Anaheim: Eddie Murray put on a memorable performance with a club record tying 9 rbi on 4 hits including 3 homers, one of them a grand slam (his 12th lifetime). Eddie wasn't alone, however, as the O's blasted California, 17-3, on a 17-hit attack featuring 7 Baltimore home runs. (For more details, see "Vs. California" on page 41.)

Sep. 7 . . . Young Beats 5-Man Infield: With bases loaded, none out and O's Mike Young batting in bottom of 9th vs. Angels, Manager Gene Mauch inserted Gus Polidor (his major league debut) as a 5th infielder (replacing right fielder) and spotted him on right side of the infield between 2nd baseman Rob Wilfong and 1st baseman Bobby Grich.

However, Young smashed a game-winning single down the line past Grich off Donnie Moore to end it.

Sep. 8 . . . 43 Players: The O's (20) and Angels (23) combined to use 43 players, a record for an Orioles game as Angels scored 3 in top of 11th to beat O's 7-4 . . . Polidor who had debuted the day before defensively ignited a game-winning 11th inning rally with a base hit in his first major league at bat.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS—1985

VS. BOSTON ('85: 5-8 . . . Lifetime: 272-281) . . . The O's lost the season series to the Sox for the 2nd straight year and for the 3rd time in 4 seasons. The Carmines are the only club in the A.L. with a lifetime winning record vs. Baltimore.

FIRST DEAL IN 25 YEARS: The O's-Red Sox deal on Dec. 17 in which Sammy Stewart went to Boston in exchange for Jackie Gutierrez, was the first between the 2 clubs in a quarter century. On that occasion, the Birds swapped outfield Willie "Razzama" Tasby to the Carmines for another outfielder, defensive whiz Gene Stephens. The date was June 9, '60.

The only other transaction between them in that span was a cash deal in '66 (Aug. 15) when the O's sold the contract of lefthanded pitcher Billy Short to the Red Sox.

1985 SEASON SERIES: At home the O's won only once against the Sox (1-5) while being out-scored 19-46 in 6 games. That lone victory occurred in the final game of the season between the 2 clubs (2nd game of dh, Oct. 3, 9-8), on a 5-run come-from-behind uprising in the 8th inning. That was John Habyan's 1st big league victory (in relief) and Eddie Murray's 2-run double was the decisive blow.

That success snapped Boston's 8-game winning streak in Baltimore. So the Red Sox go into '86 having won 8 of their last 9 at Memorial Stadium, and own a 10-3 mark here in the last two full seasons.

Overall, the Sox batted .313 (473-148) in the 13 game season series while scoring 71 runs, including a .332 mark (229-76) in 6 games at Memorial Stadium. The O's hit .250 (440-110) and tallied 53 times.

The Sox sweep of the 3 games series on June 7-8-9 (8-4, 2-1, 12-0), was their first at Memorial Stadium in 8 years (since '77).

RED SOX BATTING: Eleven of the 18 Red Sox who batted against the O's in '85, hit .292 or better (9 hit over .300). Jim Rice, a .393 hitter vs. the Birds (28-11, 3 hr, 7 rbi in 8 gms), has a .329 career average in his 11 A.L. seasons against the O's (532-115) with 35 homers and 105 rbi in 136 games.

In the last 6 years, Tony Armas has driven in 55 runs vs. the O's in 60 games while pounding 23 homers . . . Though Armas has only a .226 lifetime average against Baltimore pitching (305-69), he's hit .338 over the last 2 seasons (65-22).

The most productive of the Sox' hitters in the seasons series was Dwight Evans who drove in 13 runs in 13 games on a .360 average (50-18) with 3 homers. Rookie Mike Greenwell made an auspicious beginning against the O's with a 4-for-6 including a home run first time up off Eric Bell (it was his 3rd major league hit and 3rd homer) on Oct. 1.

Bill Buckner in two A.L. seasons has a .284 average against the Birds (109-31). So what, you say? Well, he's hitting .436 (55-24) at Memorial Stadium and only .130 (54-7) at Fenway vs. the O's . . .

Marty Barrett is batting .340 lifetime vs. the O's (94-32), well above his .277 career average . . . Wade Boggs, on the other hand, has a .317 career mark against Baltimore (183-58), substantially below his .354 overall lifetime figure.

RED SOX PITCHING: Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd, Bruce Hurst and Bobby Ojeda were all 2-1 vs. the O's in '85. No one else had more than one decision.

The O's were the last of 26 clubs to be shutout in '85 when Boyd did the job in Baltimore on June 9. It was the first time the O's had been blanked since Sep. 21, '84. Boyd was the perpetrator on that occasion as well. The O's evened the score somewhat 3 weeks later (Jun. 29 at Boston) when they jumped on Boyd for 9 hits and 7 runs in 4 innings enroute to a 16-4 victory on 19 safeties. Lifetime, "Oil Can" is 4-4 vs. the O's.

The O's won't miss Ojeda (now with the Mets) who started and completed 3 games against them in '85. He held the O's to a .183 average (93-17) in 27 innings, walking only 3 and striking out 18. Ojeda leaves the A.L. with a 6-3 lifetime mark vs. the O's (4-1 at Memorial Stadium).

ORIOLES BATTING: Floyd Rayford was the leading hitter in the season series, topping both clubs' regulars with a .405 (37-15) average . . . Eddie Murray drove in 12 runs in 13 games and shared home run leadership with Mike Young (each had 3 vs. Carmines) . . . All 3 of Young's were hit off Bruce Hurst.

John Shelby (.333, 30-10) and Lee Lacy, in his first A.L. season, (.310, 42-13) also hit well vs. the Sox, but both Fred Lynn (.150, 20-3) and Jim Dwyer (.056, 18-1) had their troubles.

Rayford is the O's leading lifetime hitter vs. the Red Sox with a .353 average (68-24), and a has a .455 (33-15) average at Fenway Park.

ORIOLES PITCHING: While the Red Sox had 3 pitchers with 2-1 records, the O's had a trio who went 1-2: Mike Boddicker, Storm Davis and Dennis Martinez.

Don Aase (0-0) was touched for 12 hits in 20 bats by the Sox in his first 2 outings against them (June 7-9) along with 9 runs in a total of just 3.2 innings. After that, however, he was stingy as hell in 4 appearances, allowing no runs and one hit in 4.1 innings while picking up 3 saves.

Dennis Martinez is now 11-16 lifetime against Boston . . . His games (32), losses, innings (102.1) and home runs allowed (24) are all career highs vs. a single opponent . . .

Davis is only 2-6 lifetime against the Red Sox who have hit him at a .360 clip the last 2 years (136-49) . . . None of the O's lefthanders had a decision against the Red Sox in '85 . . . Mike Flanagan is 9-9 lifetime, Scott McGregor 4-8 and Tippy Martinez 1-1 with 9 saves.

VS. CALIFORNIA ('85: 7-5 . . . Lifetime: 193-149) . . . The O's haven't lost a season series to the Angels since '78. Meanwhile, they've won 6 and tied one while compiling a 57-31 (.648) record, including 3-1 in the '79 WS [28-16 (.636) at Anaheim, and 29-15 (.659) in Baltimore].

In '85 the O's out-hit the Angels .303 (433-131) to .227 (414-94) and outscored them 67-55.

The 15 inning game of June 4th at Baltimore, won by the Angels 5-4 on Mike Brown's single off losing pitcher Ken Dixon, was the longest of the year by time in the A.L. (5:04). The O's 2nd longest game (4:01), on Sep. 8th, was also against California and in Baltimore and was also won by the Angels, on a 3-run rally in 11th, 7-4.

Some 43 players (Cal.-23, O's-20) saw action in that Sep. 8th game, most ever to appear in an Orioles game.

Probably the most sensational defensive play of the year at Memorial Stadium was authored by Gary Pettis on Sep. 7 . . . He made a sensational catch, while sliding on his back, of an Alan Wiggins fly ball after a long run, then from a sitting position in left-center field threw a strike to 1st base to double off John Shelby.

ANGELS BATTING: Juan Beniquez was the top-hitting Angels regular in the season series (.319, 47-15) and the top run producer (8 rbi). See Beniquez' biog for more details.

Rod Carew hasn't fared well against the O's over the last 2½ years. Since mid-'83 he is batting only .215 (32-4), but he still has a .312 (696-217) lifetime average against them.

Reggie Jackson has not hit a home run against Baltimore pitching in 2 years while batting only .185 (54-10), but his career long balls against the O's (incl. 2 in ALCS) rank 3rd (tied with Al Kaline) behind Harmon Killebrew (70) and Mickey Mantle (44) on the O's all-time opponents' list.

Gus Polidor's major league debut, in Baltimore on Saturday, Sep. 7th was unique. With the score tied and the bases loaded in the O's 9th and Mike Young coming to the plate, Gene Mauch pulled right-fielder Ruppert Jones and inserted Polidor as a 5th infielder between 1st baseman Bobby Grich and 2nd baseman Rob Wilfong. Young then hit a smash down the 1st base line past Grich to win it for the O's.

The next day Polidor entered the game as a late inning defensive replacement at shortstop and, in his first major league plate appearance, singled off Tippy Martinez to start a game-winning rally in the top of the 11th.

Dick Schofield, a .162 hitter (37-6) in the season series, has a .175 mark against the O's in 2 A.L. seasons (57-10) . . . Rookie Jack Howell went only 4-for-27 (.148) against the O's but 2 of his hits were home runs, both on Aug.27 [the night after Murray's big blow out at the Big A (see below)]. The 2 long balls were good for 5 rbi inasmuch as one of the Howell homers was a slam off Scott McGregor.

ANGELS PITCHING: Donnie Moore was the Angels' dominant pitcher against the Birds . . . he appeared in 6 games and was 1-2 with 2 saves . . . Geoff Zahn who did not face the O's in '85 is 2-11 lifetime with a 5.42 era (89.2 ip, 54 er).

ORIOLES BATTING: Eight O's hit .300 or better, led by John Shelby at .571 (21-12) and Cal Ripken who batted .377 (53-20) against the Angels.

However, Eddie Murray was the big newsmaker. On Aug. 26, a Monday night in Anaheim, he put on an awesome show: 4-for-6 with 3 home runs, 9 rbi, a walk and 3 runs scored . . . He hit the homers off John Candelaria (1) and Alan Fowlkes (2).

The O's won that game 17-3 and among their 17 hits were a total of 7 homers (Shelby, Floyd Rayford, Gary Roenicke, and Rick Dempsey in addition to Murray's 3) . . . There were a total of 9 homers in the game (Beniquez '& Grich connected as well).

Eddie drove in a total of 19 runs in the 12 game season series while batting .349 (43-15) with 3 doubles and 6 homers and a .491 on-base pct (57-28). In the last 2 years, he has accumulated 32 rbi in 24 games, smacked 9 homers, batted .368 (87-32) and had a .495 (111-55) on-base pct.

Lifetime, Murray who has never missed a game against the Angels since he join the O's in '77 (109 games) is batting .330 (406-134) with 24 homers and 92 rbi and a .419 on-base average (447-200), including the '79 ALCS.

He is one of 5 current O's with .300 career averages vs. the Angels. Shelby (.377, 69-26), Ripken (.333, 201-67), Larry Sheets (.317, 41-13), and Alan Wiggins (.300, 20-6) are the others.

Mike Young has homered against every opponent except the Angels.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Dennis Martinez was 3-1 with a 2.08 era (30.1 ip, 16 h) and one shutout. The Angels batted only .155 (103-16) against him in 4 starts . . . Lifetime, Dennis is 12-9 and has won 4 of his last 5.

Scott McGregor was only 1-1 in 3 starts with a 5.19 era (17.1 ip, 16 h, 10 er), but he is still 17-6 lifetime (.739) plus 1-0 in the '79 ALCS . . . Including ALCS, he has won 18 of his last 22 decisions vs. California. That stretch includes a 12 game win streak that extended from July 8, '79 until he lost to Steve Renko on July 19, '82 . . . His lifetime era is 2.85 (IP-180, ER-57).

Scott has an 11-3 lifetime record at Anaheim (including ALCS). His 10 game winning string at the Big A was snapped on Aug. 28, '84, the same day that Brian Downing's drive thru the box in the first inning broke his left ring finger and disabled him for the balance of the season . . . Mike Flanagan, 3-7 lifetime vs. the Angels, has never won in Anaheim where he is 0-4.

Mike Boddicker, 4-3 lifetime vs. California, has had his problems at Anaheim . . . He is 1-3 there, and has been touched for 31 hits, 18 earned runs and 10 homers in 4 starts totaling 23 innings (ERA

7.04). In Baltimore he's 3-0 with a 1.33 era (IP-27, H-16, ER-4, HR-0, CG-3).

Tippy Martinez has never beaten the Angels (he has defeated every other club at least once) . . . Tippy is 0-3, but he has saved 9 games against them.

VS. CHICAGO ('85: 8-4 . . . Lifetime: 261-231) . . . The O's are 20-10 against the White Sox starting Aug. 13, '83 (including 3-1 in '83 ALCS), and are 13-3-2 in season series vs. Chicago over the last 18 yeas (starting '69).

The O's out-hit the White Sox .283 to .253, out-scored them 73-50, and out-homered them 21-7 . . . The Sox' staff era (6.20) vs. the O's was the highest among all 13 opponents.

BAD DAY FOR CHISOX: The Sox suffered a serious blow—both short and long range—on July 11th at Memorial Stadium. They led 6-3 with 2 out and nobody on in the bottom of the 9th and their relief ace Bob James in total control on the mound.

Suddenly, James, one out away from his 18th save, injured his knee while pitching to Lee Lacy and had to leave the game. Mike Stanton relieved him. Moments later, after Lacy's single, a walk to Cal Ripken, Eddie Murray's rbi single, and a 3-run homer by Fred Lynn (his 3rd 9th inning game winning homer of the year), the O's won it. Not only had Chicago lost what seemed a certain victory but they also lost James' services for 3 weeks.

WHITE SOX BATTING: Carlton Fisk led the Sox vs. the O's in homers (2) and rbi (8) and Tim Hulett was the top hitter at .394 (33-13) . . . Ron Kittle over the last 2 seasons has batted only .107 (56-6) vs. the O's with 2 homers in 18 games and lifetime has a .185 average (92-17) with 4 homers and 13 rbi in 28 games.

WHITE SOX PITCHING: Tom Seaver was 2-0 and is now 3-1 lifetime vs. the O's (plus 1-1 in '69 WS). He and Britt Burns (5-5 lifetime, 1-2 in '85) turned in gritty back-to-back winning marathons on July 13, and 14.

On Saturday the 13th, Burns, staked to a 9-0 lead, nearly blew it as the O's pulled to within 9-8 in the 5th (Gary Roenicke hit a pair of homers off him in the 4th & 5th, one of them a grand slam), but he hung on, and went the route, allowing the O's only one hit over the last 4 innings, and won 10-8 with a 144 pitch performance.

The next afternoon, Seaver earned his 297th win on a 137 pitch effort.

Floyd Bannister was 0-3 vs. the O's in 3 starts to even his lifetime mark at 6-6 (excluding 0-1 in '83 ALCS). He has lost 4 straight to the O's (including ALCS) . . . Gene Nelson was 0-2 . . . Richard Dotson who did not pitch against Baltimore in '85 is 6-7 lifetime (regular season) . . . he's lost 5 of his last 6 decisions to the Birds (including ALCS).

ORIOLES BATTING: Cal Ripken hit .386 vs. the Sox (44-17) with 4 home runs and 14 rbi in 12 games . . . During the past 2 seasons, Rip has a .415 average (94-39) with 11 homers and 30 rbi in 24 games . . . His lifetime mark vs. the Sox is .315 (184-58).

Lee Lacy and Alan Wiggins, both in their first A.L. seasons, batted .375 (40-15) and .303 (33-10) respectively vs. Chicago . . . Wiggins stole 4 bases in 4 tries.

Fred Lynn is batting .300 lifetime (337-101) against Chicago . . . Lenn Sakata finished his Orioles career with an .053 (95-5) average vs. the Sox . . . Larry Sheets has an rbi against every A.L. opponent except the ChiSox . . . John Shelby has a .175 career average (80-14) vs. Chicago.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Rookie Ken Dixon was 2-0 vs. the Sox in '85 and Mike Boddicker was 2-1 to boost his lifetime mark to 6-1 (including '83 ALCS). Don Aase, on the other hand, was 0-2 (but did have 2 saves) and is now 1-6 lifetime with 5 saves (he's 1-5 at Comiskey).

At 11-6 Scott McGregor is the staff's biggest career winner against the White Sox while Dennis Martinez, at 6-8, is the biggest loser . . . Tippy Martinez has career 11 saves vs. Chicago, 2nd only to his career high 16 against New York, and is 6-4 . . . Storm Davis has only 2 career decisions against the Sox, both victories, in 4 A.L. seasons.

VS. CLEVELAND ('84: 8-5 . . . Lifetime: 280-274) . . . The Indians have the 2nd best lifetime record in the A.L. (6 under .500) vs. the O's. Only the Red Sox who are 281-272, 9 over .500) have a better log against Baltimore.

Both clubs scored 77 runs in the season series . . . The Indians out-hit the O's .296 (442-131) to .271 (436-118), but the Birds out-homered the Tribe 26-9. The O's also hit 26 homers against the Tigers, a high for any major league club against another in '85.

32-YEAR RIVALRY: Though the O's hold only a 6 game edge over the Indians, the fact that they have a winning record at all is surprising . . . After the Birds 1st 3 years in the A.L. ('54-'55-'56), their record against the Indians was 11-55 ('54: 3-19, '55: 3-19, '56: 5-17), and, after 6 seasons ('54 thru '59), the O's were down 40-90.

It wasn't until June '79 that the O's went over .500 for the 1st time ever against the Indians, and they have maintained a modest winning edge ever since. During the past 17 seasons (starting '69), Baltimore has gone 154-104 (.597) vs. the Tribe.

COME-FROM-BEHIND: THe O's enjoyed their biggest come-from-behind victory on April 28 in Baltimore . . . The Tribe jumped on Storm Davis for 6 runs in the 2nd inning and led 7-1 thru 3½.

Still trailing by 7-5, the O's rallied for 3 to win in the 8th. Eddie Murray tied it with a 2-run double off Tom Waddell, and John Lowenstein, playing the next to last game of his career, drove in the gwrbi with a sac fly. Don Aase won it and Waddell took the loss.

INDIANS BATTING: Julio Franco (.396, 48-19, 11 rbi), Pat Tabler (.395, 43-17, 1 hr, 13 rbi) and Brook Jacoby (.347, 49-17, 3 hr, 12 rbi) all enjoyed banner seasons against the O's.

The top current Indians lifetime hitters vs. the O's are Tabler (118-41) and Franco (.318, 148-47) . . . Tony Bernazard hit .488 (36-17) vs. Baltimore as a rookie in '81 . . . Since then however, he's batted only .195 (159-31) against the O's.

INDIANS PITCHING: In '85 lefty Curt Wardle went 2-0 vs. the O's after going 0-1 for the Twins against Baltimore. Rookies Jose Roman and Rich Thompson were both 0-2 and the veteran Vern Ruhle was 1-2.

ORIOLES BATTING: Larry Sheets (.381, 21-8) and Rick Dempsey (.317) each had 4 home runs and 10 rbi against Cleveland . . . Rick thus doubled his previous career homer output vs. the Tribe to 8. Cal Ripken also drove in 10 runs vs. Cleveland in '85.

Fred Lynn batted .340 (47-16), has a .384 log (86-33) vs. the Indians over the last 2 years and is batting .309 lifetime (456-141) . . . Alan Wiggins in his first A.L. exposure hit .429 (21-9) with 4 steals in 5 tries.

Eddie Murray had a modest season against the Indians (.279, 2 hr, 8 rbi), but over the last 5 seasons he has driven 45 runs in 55 games vs. Cleveland while batting .368 (193-71) and putting together a .468 (235-110) on-base percentage . . . Lifetime, he is batting .342 (406-139) against the Tribe, a career high vs. one opponent . . . Eddie has played in 111 of 114 Orioles games vs. Indians since he broke in in '77.

In his last 19 games vs. the Indians, Wayne Gross had batted .412 (51-21) with 5 home runs and 11 rbi. He has gone 16-for-28 (.571) in his last 10 games at Cleveland.

Mike Young has 7 homers and 18 rbi in 18 career games vs. the Indians. Though he is hitting only .241 (58-14) vs. the Tribe at Cleveland, he has 4 home runs and 11 rbi in 9 games lifetime.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Don Aase and Sammy Stewart were both 2-0 in the season series and Dennis Martinez was 2-1 . . . Scott McGregor was 0-2 in 4 starts and now has lost 6 straight decisions (in 9 starts) to the Indians since he beat Bud Anderson on Aug. 4, '83 at Cleveland.

Lifetime McGregor (10-9) and Dennis (10-8) are the biggest career winners vs. the Tribe among current O's while McGregor is the biggest loser . . . Dennis is 6-3 lifetime at Cleveland Stadium . . . Tippy, on the other hand, has never won a game on the lakefront, but has earned 4 saves there.

VS. DETROIT ('85: 6-7 . . . Lifetime: 295-265) . . . The O's & Tigers were in a 3rd place tie going into the final game of the season, won by Detroit 11-3 (Frank Tanana over Dennis Martinez).

These 2 clubs were the most prolific home run hitting teams in the majors with a combined total of 416 for the year (O's-214, Tigers-202) . . . During the 13 game season series, they smacked 46 long balls (O's-26, Tigers-20) . . . The O's also hit 26 against Cleveland, most in the majors by one club against another.

Despite the Orioles edge in homers, the Tigers out-scored them 77-62 and out-hit them in the season series, .271 (458-124) to .247 (461-114).

The Tigers have gone 14-7 at Baltimore starting Sep. 21, '82 . . . Over the last 8 seasons, each team has won 4 season series, 6 of them have been decided by a single game and the O's hold a slight 55-51 edge in that period starting '78. During the 4 years immediately prior to that ('74 thru '77), the O's had a large 50-17 advantage.

O'S SET TOTAL BASES MARK IN DETROIT: The Orioles set a club record for total bases in one game (41) on Sep. 16 at Detroit while downing the Tigers 14-7 (Dennis Martinez was the beneficiary) on a 19 hit attack that featured 4 doubles and 6 homers . . . The Bengals also contributed 3 homers. It was one of 2 Orioles games in which 9 homers were hit (also at California on Aug. 26, O's 7, Angels-2).

WILD ONE: Lee Lacy's first game ever at Tiger Stadium (June 10) was a memorable one. It was also one of the most exciting of the year for the O's though it has an unhappy ending. Lacy led off the game with a broken bat home run off Jack Morris to the opposite field (Tigers thought the bat was corked but umpire Jim McKean and Dick Butler who was on the scene examined and found no such thing).

Later he hit a 2-out homer off Aurelio Lopez in the 11th to put O's up by one but the Birds still managed to lose. In the bottom of that inning Barbaro Garbey homered to tie off Sammy Stewart, and Lance Parrish ended it 4 batters later with a "sudden death" single. To get into extra innings, the O's needed a clutch homer by Floyd Rayford in the 9th off Willie Hernandez. In all, there were 6 lead changes in the game.

After a rainout the following night, the Series ended on Wed., June 12 with another O's defeat (their 5th straight) following day-long speculation that Joe Altobelli would be fired. That rumor turned to fact the following afternoon.

TIGERS BATTING: Darrell Evans led the Tigers in rbi vs. the O's with 12 in 13 games, 4 of them from a grand slam on July 2 at Baltimore, the first (and only) one ever thrown by Storm Davis. That blast gave Tigers 4-0 lead in 1st, but O's rallied to win. Cal Ripken homered off Hernandez with 2 out and none on in 9th to tie, then Mike Young won it with a lead off homer in 10th off Hernandez.

Parrish and Chet Lemon each hit a club high 3 homers. Two of Lemon's came on the final day of the season. Playing only part time for the Twins, Dave Engle has been a .372 (43-16) hitter against the O's the last two years.

John Grubb hit .400 (20-8) vs. the O's to boost his lifetime bat mark vs. the O's to .312 (157-49) . . . Larry Herndon hit only .207 (29-6) in the season series, but still has a career average of .323 (161-52) against the Birds. Kirk Gibson hit only .256 (43-11), but drew 12 walks and was 5-for-5 in stolen base attempts.

TIGERS PITCHING: Dan Petry, now 11-7 lifetime, was 2-1 vs. the O's in '85 . . . His 7 game winning streak vs. Baltimore came to an end on Oct. 4 when Scott McGregor beat him. It was his first loss to the O's since McGregor defeated him 2½ years earlier on July 2, '83 . . . He's now won 7 of his last 8 against the O's.

Frank Tanana (2-0 as a Tiger vs. Baltimore after losing one decision against the O's while still with Texas) is now 14-11 lifetime. He and Bert Blyleven have identical career records vs. the O's and trail only Tommy John (15-16) for most wins against Baltimore among active pitchers.

Jack Morris, 6-8 lifetime, is 1-6 vs. the O's in the last 4 years (spanning 11 starts) and has lost his last 2 decisions to them. He was 0-0 in '85 in 2 starts and 0-2 in 2 starts in '84.

Hernandez and Lopez were touched for a combined total of 6 homers in 12 innings vs. Baltimore (3 each).

ORIOLES BATTING: Cal Ripken hit 5 of his 26 homers against Detroit pitching while he and Floyd Rayford who hit 4 homers off the Tigers drove in 9 runs each . . . Rip was also the top hitter among O's regulars at .327 (55-18). Lacy batted .318 (44-14) and hit 3 of his 9 homers off Detroit pitching.

Eddie Murray has had a rough time against the Tigers these past 2 years during which he has batted only .170 (94-16) in 26 games with 5 home runs and 9 rbi. However, his 27 home runs vs. Detroit remain a high vs. one opponent. He has hit 17 homers at Tiger Stadium, a total 2nd only to his 123 at Memorial Stadium. Eddie has played in all 121 Orioles games vs. the Tigers since he joined the club in '77.

Larry Sheets also struggled against the Bengals (.143, 28-4) . . . Fred Lynn is a .314 lifetime hitter (475-149) vs. Detroit. Lynn has hit 4 home runs in his last 7 games against Dan Petry . . . He has driven in 50 runs in 64 games lifetime at Tiger Stadium.

ORIOLES PITCHING: McGregor not only snapped Petry's 7 game winning streak vs. the O's on Oct. 4, he also broke his own 5 game losing streak against the Bengals at Baltimore. It was his 1st win over Detroit at Memorial Stadium since he beat Milt Wilcox on Sep. 18, '80 in Balmer.

Scott is 13-8 lifetime vs. the Bengals, 8-3 at Tiger Stadium and 5-5 at home. He won 10 of his first 11 lifetime decisions vs. Detroit, but has gone 3-7 since then. He is the club's leading active winner vs. Detroit followed by Mike Flanagan (12-8). Speaking of Flanagan, Mike has won 4 of his last 5 decisions against the Tigers (all in '84-'85).

VS. KANSAS CITY ('85: 6-6 . . . Lifetime: 110-86) . . . The O's have won only 2 season series against the Royals in the last 10 years ('81 & '83) . . . In that time, they have won 2, lost 4 and tied 4. During the 6 years of the 80s, the two clubs are 34-34 against each other.

Last year, befitting a series in which the clubs were 6-6, both Royals and O's scored 62 runs apiece, and each hit 11 home runs in the 12 game season series.

ON THE CARPET: In '85,the O's were 4-2 at Royals Stadium. It was only the 3rd time in the 13 year history of that facility that the O's had had a winning record there (also '74 & '83) . . . However, it was the 2nd time in 3 seasons that the O's had prevailed on the K.C. carpet, where they have a 10-8 record in that period.

Lifetime, the Birds are only 29-44 (.397) at Royals Stadium, after going 17-7 vs. the Royals at old Municipal Stadium during the KC club's first 4 years in the league.

17-YEAR RIVALRY: The Orioles still hold a 24 game edge in the rivalry that began in '69, and are 64-35 against the Royals in Baltimore (.646). The O's overall edge was constructed primarily in '69 & '70 when they beat the fledgling Royals in 23 of 24 outings, including a major league record 23 consecutive times after Dick Drago beat Dick Hall on May 9, '69 at Baltimore in the first game ever between these 2 clubs.

Since that streak ended, the O's advantage is only 87-85.

ROYALS BATTING: George Brett hit .366 (41-15) vs. the O's after a 4-year stretch ('81-'84) in which he batted only .200 (145-29) against Baltimore. Hal McRae, a thorn in the O's side for many years, had an uncharacteristically off year against the Birds (.091, 22-2) . . . However, he still has a .295 lifetime (461-136) average vs. the O's if you include his 5-for-11 in the '70 World Series for Cincinnati.

ROYALS PITCHING: Dan Quisenberry gave up 7 runs in 12 innings, as many as he had yielded in his entire career before '85 (40 ip, 7 er), but still picked up 4 saves in 7 appearances (W-0, L-0) . . . Lifetime, Quisenberry is 2-2 with 15 saves in 34 appearances and a 2.42 era (ip-52, er-14) and has held O's batters to a collective .237 average (190-45) . . . He's been touched for 4 home runs by the O's thru the years: Ken Singleton ('82), Eddie Murray ('83), Mike Young ('84), Cal Ripken ('85).

Cy Young Winner Brett Saberhagen was 0-2 with a 5.40 (ip-15, er-9) and so was Bud Black (era-9.00, ip-11, er-11) . . . in 2 A.L. seasons, Saberhagen is 1-2 vs. the O's but has held them to a .214 average (84-18) . . . Mike LaCoss (1-0) didn't allow the O's a run in 11.2 innings.

The Brewers' lone win in Baltimore in '85, 5-2 on Sep. 19 (Bill Wegman over Mike Boddicker in last game of year between the 2 clubs) snapped an 8 game losing streak at Memorial Stadium. It was their first win in the Monumental City in over a year (since Sep. 7, '84).

The O's are 14-3 in 17 season series against the Milwaukee franchise which began in '69 as the Seattle Pilots.

Overall, the O's lifetime record of 154-83 (.650) against Milwaukee (nee Seattle Pilots) is their 2nd best vs. a single club behind Seattle Mariners (.673, 66-32). The Texas Rangers, excluding D.C. Senators, rank 3rd in that category (.622, 97-59).

At Milwaukee (not including Seattle in '69), the O's are 70-44 lifetime (.614), their 3rd best record in a foreign port behind: (1) at Texas [.696, 55-24], and (2) at Seattle Mariners [.633, 31-18].

The O's out-hit the Brewers .308 to .248, out-scored them 79-51 and out-homered them 20-10 in '85 . . . The .308 average was the highest by the O's against a single opponent . . . The O's era in the season series was 3.63 and the Brewers' 5.43.

Earl Weaver who managed his last game before retiring in '82 against the Brewers (won by the Brewers on the last day of season to clinch their only division championship) returned to uniform 2½ seasons later, on June 14, '85, to resume his managerial career, also against the Brewers.

BREWERS BATTING: The Brewers' best hitter in the season series was Jim Gantner (.400, 40-16). He raised his career average vs. the O's from .194 to .227 (251-57). Cecil Cooper led in rbi with 11 in 12 games. Lifetime, Paul Molitor has the highest average vs. the O's among current veteran Brewers at .287 (317-94).

BREWERS PITCHING: Rookie Wegman and Jaime Cocanower were both 2-0, accounting for all the Brewers' '85 wins vs. Baltimore . . . Wegman decisioned Boddicker on Sep. 19 (5-2) to snap the Brewers 8 game loss streak in Baltimore, then, 5 days later, downed Scott McGregor, 10-6, to terminate Scott's 8 game winning string against the Brewers.

In those 2 games Wegman received a lot of support from Bob McClure, Wegman worked a total of 10.2 innings (12 hits, 6 runs) in the 2 starts and McClure who saved both pitched 7.1.

Cocanower appeared in 3 games vs. the Birds, pitched a shutout in his only start (beat Mike Flanagan on Sep. 25, 3-0) and had an 0.50 era (ip-18, er-1). Cocanower is now 4-0 vs. Baltimore lifetime.

The only multiple loser was Danny Darwin at 0-2, his first 2 losses ever to the O's against whom he was 5-0 prior to '85 . . . Moose Haas (0-1), the Baltimore native and Franklin High School graduate, is 5-8 lifetime against his home town team.

Rookie Pitcher of the Year Ted Higuera appeared in 4 games vs. the Birds including 3 starts and was 0-1 with an 8.79 era (ip-14.1, h-20) . . . The O's batted .323 (62-20) against him.

ORIOLES BATTING: Ten of the 21 Orioles who batted against the Brewers in '85 hit .300 or better, including Alan Wiggins (.500, 12-6), Wayne Gross (.467, 15-7), Eddie Murray (.423, 52-22), Fred Lynn (.412, 34-14), Larry Sheets (.333, 36-12) and John Shelby (.333, 24-8).

Lynn and Cal Ripken each had 10 rbi and Lynn paced the O's with 5 home runs against the Brewers.

Lifetime, there are 5 current Orioles with lifetime averages of .300+ vs. Milwaukee: Eddie Murray whose .331 mark (423-140) is his highest vs. one opponent; Sheets (.333, 36-12), Jim Dwyer (.330, 103-34), Floyd Rayford (.313, 48-15), Shelby (.306, 85-26).

Ripken's 42 lifetime rbi against the Brewers are a personal high vs. one opponent. Dwyer's average against Milwaukee is also a career high . . . Since joining O's he's hit .375 (32-12) at County Stadium.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Scott McGregor (3-1 against Milwaukee in '85) who was 1-5 after his first 6 career decisions against Milwaukee has since gone 8-1 vs. the Brewers. His loss to Wegman (9/24) snapped an 8 game win streak vs. the Brewers. He hadn't lost to them since Lary Sorensen beat him on May 10, '80 . . . Scotty is now 9-6 lifetime.

Nate Snell gave up 5 runs and 13 hits in 10 innings vs. the Brewers but still emerged with a 2-0 record in 5 relief appearances.

Dennis Martinez, 1-0 in '85, is the biggest career winner vs. Milwaukee among current O's at 11-5. Dennis is 6-0 lifetime vs. the Brewers at Baltimore . . . Storm Davis is 5-1 and Mike Boddicker is 5-2. The only O's hurler with a losing record is Mike Flanagan (8-10) who has lost 7 of his last 9 decisions vs. Milwaukee.

VS. MINNESOTA ('85: 6-6 . . . Lifetime: 187-151, vs. Twins only) . . . O's have gone 6-1-2 in last 9 season series vs. Twins . . . Only loss in that period was in '84 (5-7) . . . From '79 thru '83, the O's were 40-14 (.741) against Minnesota, but in last 2 years have gone 11-13 (.458).

Ray Miller, the O's pitching coach for 7½ years (starting '78), left the club on June 21 to manage the Twins . . . In 6 games against the Birds, Miller was 4-2 against his old mentor Earl Weaver.

Though the Twins out-hit the Orioles .293 (433-127) to .265 (419-111), the Birds held the edge in both runs scored (63-61) and homers (15-11).

The O's were 3-3 at the "Humphrey Dome" in '85 and now hold a 12-12 lifetime record there (they were only 1-5 at Minny in '84).

TWINS BATTING: Kirby Puckett was Twins' top hitter in series at .388 (49-19) . . . In fewer than 2 full A.L. seasons, Puckett has .356 (73-26) lifetime mark vs. O's. Gary Gaetti is another who has hit well against the Birds. He batted .348 (46-16) in '85 and sports a .310 career average (168-52) vs. Baltimore.

The O's aren't un-happy to see Mickey Hatcher depart . . . His lifetime mark as a Twin was .320 (178-57) against the Birds . . . Kent Hrbek topped the Twins in rbi in the season series with 11.

TWINS PITCHING: Frank Viola was 2-0 in 2 starts (incl. 1 cg), yielding only 11 hits and 3 earned runs in 17 innings. Lifetime, he's 3-2.

Ron Davis was 1-2, but picked up 4 saves in 8 appearances . . . He was thus involved in 5 of the Twins' 6 wins against the Orioles. His 2 losses came on successive nights (5/10-11) on 9th inning "sudden death" homers by Fred Lynn at Baltimore.

Ron threw the "gopher" on May 10, but not the one the next night. Curt Wardle had that distinction, but Davis allowed the first 2 hitters to reach via singles on May 11 before Lynn's 3-run smash and they became the tying and winning runs.

Ken Schrom was 1-2 in 4 starts . . . John Butcher (1-1 in '85) finally lost to the Birds after posting a 5-0 lifetime record against them. The defeat was at the hands of Mike Boddicker, 10-5, on May 5 at HHH.

Lifetime, Butcher is now 6-1 including a 2-hit shutout for Texas in '83. His 4-0 mark vs. the O's for the Twins in '84 represented the most wins against Baltimore in one season since Pat Dobson went 5-0 for Cleveland in '76. Joe Cowley matched Butcher's 4-0 mark in '85 for the Yankees.

Bert Blyleven didn't pitch vs. the O's after re-joining the Twins, but he did start twice against them while still with the Indians and was 0-0.

In one effort at Memorial Stadium on Apr. 28, Blyleven was ko'd in the 8th inning after being charged with 6 earned runs and on his way to the shower offered an extended middle digit to fans near the dugout. He was subsequently fined by A.L. President Dr. Bobby Brown, and that money was donated to Baltimore charities.

Blyleven is 14-11 lifetime vs. the O's, tied for 2nd among actives with Frank Tanana for most anti-Orioles victories behind Tommy John, the biggest winner and loser at 15-16. Over the last 3 years, Blyleven is 3-1 (all in '84) but in that time has posted a 5.02 era against the Birds (ip-37.2, er-21).

ORIOLES BATTING: Lynn, Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken each drove in 10 runs against the Twins. Lynn hit 4 home runs off Minnesota pitching, 3 of them in successive 9th innings (May 10-11-12) at Baltimore . . . The first 2 won games in instant fashion (see Ron Davis above) while the final one could not offset a big Twins lead . . . The last 2 Lynn homers in that stretch were to left field off lefthanders Wardle and Viola.

Lynn has excelled vs. Minnesota throughout his career and his totals in average (.330, 415-137), home runs (26) and rbi (92) in 114 games are all lifetime highs.

Lynn is one of 6 current O's with .300+ career averages against the Twins along with Jim Dwyer (.302, 63-19), Lee Lacy (.318, 22-7), Murray (.310, 381-118), Ripken (.337, 196-66) and Larry Sheets (.345, 29-10). In addition, Rick Dempsey who began his major league career with the Twins in '69 has a career .283 average (240-68), his highest against one opponent.

The top Orioles hitters in the '85 season series were Dwyer (.391, 23-9), Sheets (.345, 29-10) and Ripken (.340, 53-18) . . . Cal was 10-for-15 (2bh-3, hr-2) with 8 rbi and broke Brooks Robinson's Orioles consecutive games record during a 3-game series at the MetroDome May 3-4-5.

Cal has had 3 five-hit games in the majors, 2 of them at HHH. One was last May 5th, and the other on Sep. 3, '83 when he also tied or broke 4 club records as the O's won big, 13-0. Among the records tied that day was most total bases, game (13). Lifetime, Rip is batting .359 (103-37) at the "Hump" with 8 doubles, 6 home runs and 19 rbi in 24 games.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Mike Boddicker was 3-1 while hurling 2 complete games in 4 starts with a 2.51 era and 26 strikeouts in 32.1 innings . . . The year before Mike had gone 0-3 vs. Minny . . . Don Aase was 2-1 with a save in 5 appearances . . .

Mike Flanagan who didn't pitch against the Twins in '85 is 15-4 lifetime against them, and has won 15 of his last 17 decisions including 14 in a row at one point (that streak was snapped in '84 when he dropped 2 of 3 decisions to Minnesota).

Scott McGregor is 11-6 lifetime . . . Tippy Martinez had no decisions or saves in 4 appearances vs. the Twins in '85, but hurled 5.1 scoreless innings. He has allowed one Minnesota home run lifetime in 37 games spanning 55.1 innings. That was a blast by Tom Brunansky at Minny on July 4, '84 . . . Former Twins hurler now with the O's, Brad Havens, is 10-17 lifetime at HHH, all while with Minnesota.

Dennis Martinez was 0-1 in 3 starts . . . Twins hit .531 against him (49-26) in 8 innings (ERA-15.75, ER-14). Dennis' 6.36 career era vs. Minny (IP-93.1, ER-66) is a career high.

VS. NEW YORK ('85: 1-12 . . . Lifetime: 283-273) . . . The O's 1-12 (.077) record against the Yankees in '85 represents the worst experience ever for the O's in a season series (by percentage). Worse even than their 2-16 vs. Detroit (.111) in '62 and their 3-19 (.136) records vs. Cleveland ('54 & '55) and the Yankees ('55). The best the O's have ever done vs. New York were 11-2 (.846) in '82 and 15-3 (.833) in '66.

It was the 3rd year in a row the Yanks had won the season series. During that span, the Bombers hold a 27-12 edge, and, starting June 23, '84, they are 18-3 vs. the Orioles.

The Yankees hit .315 (438-138) in the 13 games, scored 78 runs (both highs by one opponent vs. the O's) and averaged 6 runs per game.

The O's, on the other hand, hit .213 (423-90), scored 36 runs, both lows vs. a single adversary, and averaged 2.77 runs per game (less than half the Yankees' average) . . . New York also enjoyed a 14-11 home run advantage.

FIRST O'S - YANKS DEAL IN 9 YEARS: The Gary Roenicke for Rich Bordi & Rex Hudler trade of Dec. 11, '85 was the first between these 2 clubs since the O's dealt Paul Blair to New York for Elliott Maddox at the '76 Winter Meetings.

Just 6 months earlier, however, on June 15, '76, O's GM Hank Peters made a blockbuster 10 player trade with the Yankees (Gabe Paul) and 3 of the players the O's acquired are still playing major roles for the Birds: Scott McGregor, Rick Dempsey and Tippy Martinez. One of the 5 who went to the Yankees in that transaction was Ellie Hendricks, the O's bullpen coach.

DISASTROUS SERIES IN JUNE: While sweeping the Birds in a 3 game set at Baltimore on June 17-18-19 (10-0, 6-4, 10-0), the Yankees out-scored the O's 26-4. It was the worst beating absorbed by the Birds since the Brewers swept the first 3 games of the '78 season (at Milwaukee) while out-gunning the O's 40-11.

In that 3-game series, the Yanks out-hit the Birds .389 (113-44) to .158 (95-15), and scored 10 of their 26 runs in the first 2 innings of the 3 games . . . The first 2 batters in the Yankees lineup (Rickey Henderson and Don Mattingly) reached safely 12 times in 12 appearances (8 hits, 4 walks) in the opening game. Over the course of the entire series, the lead off and #2 hitters (Ken Griffey as well as Mattingly) had a .758 on-base percentage (25 times in 33 trips).

The only bad thing that happened to the Yankees in the series was the injury to Butch Wynegar who was hit near the left ear by a Willie Randolph foul ball while waiting in the on-deck circle. Wynnegar missed a substantial amount of playing time as a result of that injury.

On June 17 Scott McGregor and Sammy Stewart combined to throw 84 pitches thru 3 innings and trailed only 5-0 because Yanks had stranded 7. The next night Storm Davis threw 107 in 6 frames . . . Both Ron Guidry and Ed Whitson threw shutouts in that series.

O's LONE WIN (SEP. 20): Mike Flanagan won his 6th straight over the Yankees with a 2 inning save from Don Aase to account for the O's only win of the year against the Yankees.

Cal Ripken broke a 2-2 tie with a 7th inning single off loser Rich Bordi and Eddie Murray plated an insurance tally with a single off Dave Righetti as O's won 4-2 at Memorial Stadium . . . It was the Yankees 8th straight loss and dropped them 8½ games back of Toronto . . . See more on Flanagan below under "Orioles Pitching".

O'S VS. YANKEES LIFETIME: The O's 283-273 (.509) record lifetime against the Yanks is still the best in the A.L. Detroit ranks 2nd at 797-871 (.478), followed by the Milwaukee Brewers (excl. Seattle in '69) at 106-122, .465.

Despite the horrendous '85 record, the O's have gone 251-197 (.560) vs. the Bombers over the last 27 years ('59 thru '85) and are 200-147 (.560) in 22 seasons ('64 thru '85).

AT BALTIMORE: The O's were 1-5 at Baltimore vs. the Yanks in '85 and have now lost 7 of their last 8 against them at Memorial Stadium starting Sep. 25, '84 . . . Prior to that stretch the O's had gone 20-8 at home vs. New York (starting Aug. 17, '80 and including 7-0 in '80) . . . Lifetime, the O's hold a 150-127 advantage in Baltimore.

AT NEW YORK: The O's 0-7 mark at Yankee Stadium was their worst performance anywhere on the road since they were 0-11 in '54 at Cleveland Stadium. Two other clubs also went winless in the Bronx in '85: Minnesota & Texas, both 0-6.

The O's have had 2 exceptionally productive seasons at "The House that Ruth Built" . . . In '65 they were 10-1 and in '76 8-1 . . . Conversely they've also had a couple of 1-10 campaigns at New York ('55 & '60).

Lifetime at Yankee Stadium, the O's are 124-137 (.475) which still ranks as tops among all visiting clubs . . . The Twins are .404 (63-93) and Oakland is 3rd at .389 (37-58) . . . In one 4 year stretch ('65-'68), the O's were 30-8 at Yankee Stadium including a 12 game winning streak.

Since the new Yankee Stadium opened 10 years ago ('76), the O's are 33-37.

SWEEPS: The Yankees swept 3 of the 4 series in '85 . . . In the 32 year rivalry there have been 65 sweeps (3 games minimum), 31 by the O's and 34 by the Yankees. The O's are 19-12 in sweeps at Baltimore and 12-22 in Yankee Stadium sweeps.

RICKEY HENDERSON: Though a career long menace to the O's, out-did himself in '85 . . . He batted .460 (50-23) and with 12 walks, forged a .556 on-base percentage (63-35) . . . He set an all time anti-Orioles record by stealing 17 bases (in 18 attempts) and he also scored 20 runs. He led all O's opponents in each of the 4 aforementioned categories.

Lifetime, Henderson has a .359 average (287-103), tops among all active opponents with 200 or more career at bats vs. Baltimore. He is also the pace setter in on-base percentage at .465 (346-161) thanks in large measure to 58 walks and in stolen bases with 53 in 62 tries (.855).

Speaking of stolen bases, Henderson in '85 stole 80 bases to break a 71 year old Yankee record (74) set in 1914 by the late Fritz Maisel, a Baltimore area native who also managed and played for the International League Orioles, scouted for the current franchise, and was the father of Sunpapers sports columnist Bob Maisel.

YANKEES BATTING: Ten of the 18 Yankees who batted against the O's in '85 batted .300 or better . . . In the last 2 seasons the Yankees have had a composite .304 bat mark vs. Baltimore (887-270), .294 in '84 and .315 last season.

Aside from Henderson, others who excelled vs. Orioles pitching were: Dave Winfield (.358, 53-19; 3 hr, 15 rbi), Don Mattingly (.333, 51-17, 3 hr, 17 rbi) and Ken Griffey (.333, 33-11). Mattingly and Winfield were 1-2 among O's opponents in rbi, 17 and 15 respectively.

At the Kingdome, Baltimore has maintained a 31-18 (.633) log.

MARINERS PITCHING: Mike Moore is only 3-6 lifetime vs. the O's, but you'd never guess it based on his '85 efforts against the Birds. He allowed only 4 earned runs in 23.2 innings (era 1.52) while walking 14 and striking out 18.

The year before the O's had gone 12-for-24 against Hough and had built their record against him lifetime to 5-0.

MEMORABLE GAMES: There have been many memorable moments in the O's-Blue Jays rivalry over the past 9 seasons including the "Earl Weaver forfeit" on Sep. 15, '77 and the 24-10 pasting the Jays handed the O's in Toronto on June 26, '78 (the night Ellie Hendricks and Larry Harlow pitched).

However, for the Orioles, the game that stands out above the rest was the "3 pickoff" game in Baltimore Aug. 24, '83 . . . The O's were down 3-1 with 2 on and 2 down in the 9th when they suddenly tied the score on rbi singles by Benny Ayala and Al Bumbry and forced the game into overtime.

Because of extensive offensive maneuvering, the O's took the field in the 10th with strangers at 3 positions . . . John Lowenstein was at 2nd base, Gary Roenicke at 3rd and Lenn Sakata was catching for the first time since Little League.

Cliff Johnson led off the 10th with a home run off Tim Stoddard to put the Jays back on top. When Barry Bonnell followed with a single, Tippy Martinez came on and proceeded to retire the side without retiring a batter . . . First, he picked off Bonnell, then he walked Jesse Barfield and picked him off, and finally yielded a single to Willie Upshaw before nailing him the same way.

Rookie Fritz Connally, who hit .455 (11-5) against the Jays before being sent down to Rochester in June, hit his first major league home run at Toronto on April 19. It was a grand slam off Doyle Alexander on the 14th pitch thrown to him on that time at bat . . . He had fouled off 9 pitches before connecting.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Mike Boddicker was 0-3 vs. the Jays with a 5.92 era (ip-24.1, er-16) and is now 3-4 lifetime . . . No other Oriole had multiple wins or losses, but Storm Davis also had a rough time. VOLUNTARY DRUG TEST PROGRAM

On January 30, the Orioles announced the first voluntary substance abuse program. Approved by the Commissioner, the one-year pilot program offers drug abuse therapy to players when needed.

The program calls for confidential, independent drug abuse testing thru The Johns Hopkins Hospital and Medical Center under the supervision of three Johns Hopkins physicians–Dr. Paul R. McHugh, Dr. Frank J. Oski and Dr. Alan Romanoski.

Dr. James McGee, Chief of Psychology at the Shepherd and Enoch Pratt Hospital will continue to serve as a director of the Orioles employees assistance program which provides for testing of minor league players and other personnel.

Urinalysis substance abuse testing, the cost to be assumed by the ballclub, will be conducted from 3 to 6 times a year on a spot and confidential basis. The players identity and test results will not be disclosed without consent of the player.

100 WINS

The Orioles won more than 100 games in each of 3 straight seasons—'69 (109), '70 (108) and '71 (101). Only two other clubs have achieved that feat in the history of major league baseball: the Philadelphia A's of '29-'30-'31 (104-102-107) and the St. Louis Cardinals in '42-'43-'44 (106-105-105).

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

Winners: Whitey Ford, the Yankees Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else, even though he has been retired since '67 . . . He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford is one of 11 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 32 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan both (21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-21), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Among currently active pitchers, the biggest winners against the O's are; Tommy John (15-16), followed by Bert Blyleven and Frank Tanana (both 14-11).

Losers: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore, is also the biggest lifetime loser (24) . . . At one time "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's, but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Kaat (21) . . . Other big losers were Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Geoff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Among actives, Tommy John is the biggest loser (16), just as he's the biggest winner (assuming he makes a big league roster on opening day) . . . Jim Slaton (11-12) is next followed by Blyleven, Beattie and Tanana (11 each).

ORIOLES TRAINERS

Ralph Salvon, the American League's senior head trainer, is in his 19th year in that capacity with the Orioles since he replaced Eddie Weidner in '68. Ralph has been a baseball trainer for 34 years since graduating from Gus Mauch's Trainer's School in '52, and has spent 30 years with the O's organization (including one year with the Orioles' predecessors, the St. Louis Browns).

He worked in the farm system from '53 thru '61, went to the Houston Astros for the next 4 years, then returned in '66 and spent 2 seasons as Weidner's assistant before moving up to the top job. A native of Fitchburg, MA, Ralph and his wife, Jane, live in Phoenix, MD.

Richie Bancells, 30, has already spent 10 seasons in the Orioles organization and is now in his 3rd year as the club's assistant trainer. He had served as head trainer and traveling secretary for the Orioles' AAA affiliate Rochester Red Wings for four years before coming to Baltimore in '84, but has been assisting Ralph Salvon at the O's big league camp in Miami since '80.

A Key West, FL native and a graduate of Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University), he first joined the organization as assistant trainer for the Miami O's (Florida State League) in '78-'79.

Richie and his wife, Carol, are the parents of two children. They reside in Joppa, MD.

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1985: For the first time since '72, the Orioles had two players in the A.L.'s starting lineup. Eddie Murray, playing in his 6th all-star game and 5th straight, was a starter for the first time. He was joined in the infield by Cal Ripken, Jr., who was making his 3rd all-star game appearance, 2nd as starter. Ripken, the first Oriole elected to start in consecutive years since Brooks Robinson in '73 and '74, led A.L. players in votes (1,398,901) finishing just ahead of runner-up George Brett (1,394,334).

The presence of Murray in the starting lineup may have been something new, but the outcome of the game certainly wasn't as the N.L. won for the 13th time in the last 14 years, 6-1 at the Hubert Humphrey Metrodome in Minnesota on July 16, in the 56th All-Star Game.

Murray was 0-for-3 while Ripken had a single off Nolan Ryan in 3 trips to the plate, one of only 5 hits managed by the A.L.

Elected Starters: It was a late surge by his supporters that helped Murray to his first starting berth in an all-star game. He trailed Rod Carew by as many as 50,000 votes at one point and by 10,000 entering the final week. On the final count, however, Murray received 50,000 more votes then Carew.

The last time the Orioles had 2 elected starters was in '71 when Frank Robinson and Brooks Robinson were both in the lineup. Twelve O's have been elected to start in the 16 years of fan voting. In addition to Murray and Ripken, Orioles who have been elected to starting positions are Boog Powell ('70, '71), Brooks Robinson ('71, '72, '73, '74),Frank Robinson ('71), Bobby Grich ('76), Ken Singleton ('81).

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69).

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won "MVP" honors in all-star competition: 'Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles lefthander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last three innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all nine batters he faced to protect a one run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's fourth inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned hime "mvp" honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L. which did not win another all-star game until '83.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. However, when the original Baltimore NFL franchise left town after the '50 football season, work on the new facility was suspended until '52.

Despite the construction the International League Orioles continued to play their home games here on 33rd Street (thru '53) as did the Baltimore Colts franchise when it re-located from Dallas (Texans) prior to the '53 football season.

The new stadium was completed essentially in October, '53, but refinements continued on thru the spring of '54, the A.L. Orioles first in Baltimore.

The original Municipal Stadium was built for football and completed in 1924. However, when old Oriole Park (29th Street and Greenmount Avenue) burned down on the night and early morning of July 3-4, 1944, the Orioles moved into the big ballpark (in those days home plate was in what is now dead center field).

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was built for $6 milion on 28¾ acres of city owned property and financed by two city bond issues.

Over the years, there have been some changes made. In '54, the distance from home plate to the fence in dead center was 450'. That has been whittled down gradually to its present 405'.

The Orioles dugout was originally on the first base side, but when some 2,600 field boxes were installed in front of the original boxes in '61 (prior to that there was an 8' wall between the front row of the boxes and the field, and Baltimore led the world in foul territory), new dugouts had to be constructed and the home tean moved over to third base.

In 1964 additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600 seats. In 1970 (mid-season) a new scoreboard was installed. In recent years the old splintery wooden benches (without backs) have been completely replaced by chairs and nonwooden benches with back rests, and a 35th row has been added to the upper deck.

In 1980, six new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms, were completed.

During the past year, construction was completed on new adminstrative offices for the Orioles. The project also included a new Diamond Vision video board (by Mitsubishi) situated in right centerfield.

NO-HITTERS BY OPPONENTS

Two no-hitters have been pitched against the Orioles in the 32 years they have been back in the American League, both by the Angels. Bo Belinsky was the first, on May 5, '62 at Dodger Stadium, winning 2-0 over Steve Barber . . . In 1975 Nolan Ryan no-hit the Orioles on June 1 at Anaheim Stadium, defeating Ross Grimsley, 1-0.

FARM SYSTEM—1985

Baltimore's 5 farm teams finished with a cumulative record of 278-288 (.491), but over the past 23 seasons the O's minor league organization record is 7783-7139 (.522). During that time, the Birds have been selected as the Topps "Baseball Organization of the Year" three times ('66, '71, '72).

Only 5 minor league teams in baseball have been affiliated with the same big league club continually for the past 25 years and 2 of those teams are Orioles affiliates.

Bluefield has been a member of the Orioles' farm system for the past 28 years equalling baseball's longest running affiliation (tied with San Francisco—Fresno). Rochester has been an O's affiliate for 25 years.

In the footsteps of the big league club, Rochester, the O's International League (AAA) affiliate, and Charlotte, of the Southern League (AA), both led their respective circuits in home runs. On the pitching side, three Oriole farmhands led their respective leagues in strikeouts—Rochester's Brad Havens topped the International League with 130; Charlotte's John Hoover tied for the Southern League lead with 128; Hagerstown's Eric Bell fanned 162 to lead the Carolina League (A).

Rochester finished 7th in the International League with a 58-81 record. The Red Wings posted a 41-40 mark after Mark Wiley replaced Frank Verdi as manager on June 17. Shortstop Kelly Paris was named to the IL all-star team. Bill Swaggerty led the league in complete games (10) and innings pitched (19).

Charlotte duplicated its '84 feat by winning the Southern League's Eastern Division Championship. Unlike '84, however, the Orioles lost out to Western Division champ Huntsville, 3 games to 2, in the SL championship series. After a 4th place finish in the first half, the O's rebounded to win the division's 2nd half season and down first half winner, Columbus, 3 games to 1 in the playoffs. Charlotte righthander John Habyan was named to the league's all-star team. Michael Skinner set a league record for best winning pct. with an 11-1 record (.917).

Hagerstown owned a 41-28 record in the first half, placing them 2nd in the Carolina League's Northern Division. In the 2nd half, however, the Suns went 24-44, the worst mark in the league. Shortstop D.L. Smith and first baseman Chris Padgett were named to the league's all-star team. League strikeout leader Bell also tied for the league lead in games started with 26.

Newark (class A) failed to reach the N.Y.-Penn. League championship playoffs for the first time in 3 years as they finished third in the McNamara Division with a 41-36 record.Jeff Ballard tied for the league lead in shutouts (3) and complete games (6) and was named to that circuits' all-star team.

Bluefield (rookie league) was 36-34 in the Appalachian League. Third baseman Craig Worthington was named to the all-star team. Righthander Chester Stanhope led all Appy. League pitchers in appearances with 26.

ORIOLES CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS

Cal Ripken started last year with the 3rd longest consecutive game string but by season's end it had become the longest at 603 and is still intact. He has not missed an Orioles game since May 29, '82 (see his biog for details).

Cal started the '85 season having played 442 consecutive games, but soon passed Eddie Murray's 444 (Aug. 21, '77 thru July 13, '80) and Brooks Robinson's 463 (Sep. 7, '60 thru Sep. 2, '63). Brooks' skein had been the club standard for 22 years.

The fourth longest consecutive game streak in O's history was Billy Gardner's 361, constructed from June 9, '56 thru Aug. 4, '58.

The major league draft is held annually at baseball's winter meetings, and is followed with a separate selection by National Association clubs from class AAA to A levels . . . Until 1958 major league clubs could draft players within a range between $15,000 (for AAA players) and $2,000 (for class D players) . . . In 1958 the price for big league drafts rose to $25,000.

However, in 1959, a first year player draft at the big league level was set up to discourage the payment of inordinately large bonus payments to free agents. The new rule provided that first year players could be selected at the major league level (if not protected on a major league team's 40 man roster) for $12,000. In 1961 an even lower draft price was set up for more recent first year players. That figure was $8,000.

That year, incidentally, the Baltimore organization set a record of sorts by being relieved of 19 eligible first year players (seven during the big league selections and 11 more during the minor league draft). In 1965 the first year player draft began to lose its significance and then disappeared in 1970.

ORIOLES "HALL OF FAME"

Jim Palmer, the 268-game winner who holds virtually every Orioles record for a starting pitcher, and Ken Singleton, a three-time "Most Valuable Oriole," who hit .290 or better five times in 10 Baltimore seasons, have been elected to the Orioles' Hall of Fame for '86 and will be inducted in special ceremonies prior to the O's-Yankees game on June 14.

They joined the 12 others who have been elected by vote of selected sports reporters and veteran members of the Oriole Advocates since the Orioles' Hall of Fame was founded in '77 by the Advocates. The purpose of the institution is to honor those players, managers, and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the franchise since Baltimore returned to the major leagues in '54.

The previously chosen members are: Brooks and Frank Robinson ('77)—charter inductees; Dave McNally ('78); Boog Powell ('79); Gus Triandos ('81); Luis Aparicio and Mike Cuellar ('82); Mark Belanger and Earl Weaver ('83); Paul Blair and Paul Richards ('84); and Milt Pappas ('85).

To become a member, a candidate must be mentioned on 75% of the ballots cast. To qualify for nomination, he must have spent at least three seasons with the Orioles and must be one year removed from capacity in which he is being considered (e.g. Al Bumbry, because he was still playing last season, will not be eligible for election until next year).

Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both past presidents of the Oriole Advocates, were instrumental in making the Oriole's "Hall of Fame" a reality. The chairman of the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee this year is Chuck Lippy.

ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME AT COOPERSTOWN

Six "modern" Orioles, those who have played for the O's since they returned to the American League in '54, have been elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, New York—five of them in the last four years (year of induction and percentage of votes received in parenthesis):

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)
George Kell ('83, Veterans Committee Selection)
Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)

Additionally, there are 15, who played and managed here during Baltimore's rich baseball past, also enshrined in the Hall (position in parenthesis):

Frank "Home Run" Baker (3b)
Charles "Chief" Bender (p)
Roger Bresnahan (c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)
William "Candy" Cummings (p)
"Lefty" Grove (p)
Rogers Hornsby (2b)
Hughie Jennings (ss)
"Wee Willie" Keeler (rf)
Joe Kelley (if)
Rube Marquard (p)
Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity (p)
John McGraw (mgr)
Wilbert Robinson (mgr)
Babe Ruth (of)

Notes: There are three other Hall of Famers who represented Baltimore ballclubs in non-playing and non-managing capacities: George Weiss, a one-time International League O's general manager who later immortalized himself as g.m. of the Yankees; Luke Appling, a Hall of Fame shortstop for the White Sox who later coached for the O's for one year ('63); and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 2370 games in the majors. Burleigh, was a scout for the O's from 1960-71.

John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons, but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager . . . Rube Marquard pitched only 27 innings for the O's ('29) but he lived here for nearly 60 years before he died in '80 . . . "Chief" Bender did most of his pitching for the Philadelphia A's for whom he was 206-111. In his one full year in Baltimore, pitching for the Outlaw Federal League Terrapins, he was only 4-16.

 elected in first year of eligibility.

Baltimore born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr. in 1914 and made his debut with the Orioles that year as a pitcher . . . He was of course elected to the Hall of Fame as an outfielder . . . Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include Baker, Grove, and three who never played for the O's: Jimmie Foxx Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill) and Al Kaline (Balmer).

Baltimore has been represented in 3 recognized major leagues: National Association (1872-74); National League (1892-99) and American League (1901-02, '54-86). From 1903 thru 1953 (51 seasons), the Orioles were in the International League (known as Eastern League until 1916).

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels, was unique when it was created in July, 1960 and remains so today, 26 years later.

The membership of the Advocates, comprises some 75 men and women drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions, primarily to youth organizations; have played a leading role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Streeet, and its conversion into a Babe Ruth and Orioles Museum; and established in '77 the Orioles "Hall of Fame".

The organization has also seved as an essential right arm of the Orioles' public relations and promotions departments. Probably the biggest contribution of all in that area has been the formation and annual administration of the JUNIOR ORIOLES program. Originated in '63 with an enrollment of 75 youngsters, the Junior Orioles grew to a record 20,000 members in '77. It is a high-quality "knothole" program, a huge undertaking requiring much care, time and effort.

Among a wide variety of other activities, the Oriole Advocates also serve as distributors on Orioles souvenir giveaway promotion dates at the ballpark, making sure that all eligible fans receive the items to which they are entitled.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers constantly demonstrating just how important are the qualities of competence and dedication.

The Oriole Advocates 1986 officers are: President: Peck Minder . . . 1st Vice President: Burke Barrett . . . 2nd Vice President: Jack Gray . . . Secretary: Dan March . . . Treasurer: Charlie Pecot . . . Immediate Past President: Bill Schofield.

The Board of Directors comprises: Bernie Lochte, Scott Warrington, and Fred Adkins. Among the Oriole Advocates Committee Chairmen for '86 are: Junior Orioles–Tom Hessenauer . . . Orioles Hall of Fame–Chuck Lippy . . . Special Events–Bob Bates . . . Luncheons–Ray Weinstein.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters" have sold season tickets for the O's for the past 7 years (starting '80) and, in that period, the O's pre-season sale has jumped dramatically from 1,623 in '79 to a projected figure of more than 12,000 for 1986 (final figures will not be available until April because the "selling season" continues to opening day).

Membership in the "Designated Hitters" is expected to grow this year to an all-time high of between 60 and 65 business men and women who live and work within the Orioles drawing area (Birdland).

To achieve membership candidates must meet required sales minimums. The formula is based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

Last year, Allen Becker and Glenn Babcock were the leading veteran members in sales while Jennifer Sclafani, Jake Jacobson and David Hubbard were tops among "rookie" members.

Incentives for members this year include: the annual weekend outing to the O's spring training headquarters in Miami and a special custom "DH" blazer for all qualifiers.

For those "DH's" who rank among the higher qualifiers, there will be a special trip to the World Series and a weekend in Chicago to watch the O's and the White Sox in a series at Comiskey Park.

However, if the "Designated Hitters" collective goal of 12,345 season tickets sold (the equivalent of 1,000,000 game tickets) is reached, then all qualifiers will make the "Windy City" trip.

And, for those at the very top of the sales ladder, a mid-summer junket to Paris and Monte Carlo is scheduled.

The "Designated Hitters" organization, patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers", was founded in September, '79 by Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles front office.

The idea was to enlist the talents of successful people from the business community to serve as the principal sales force in an effort to expand the Orioles season ticket base. In 7 short years, should the '86 goal be met, the O's season sales will have increased a whopping 754%.

Along with Mayor Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; the Orioles director of business affairs, Bob Aylward; executive director of sales Lou Michaelson, and former club vice president Al Harazin, now with the New York Mets.

The importance and scope of the "Designated Hitters" activities have grown to such an extent that today there are two Orioles coordinators, Roy Sommerhof and Vince Dunbar, working full time to keep the program prospering.

The "Designated Hitters" have their own officers (Bill Jones is the current president) and board of directors, as well as their own bylaws, newsletters and what is laughingly called a softball team. They conduct their own meetings and pursue an aggressive social program that is not designed for the faint of heart.

The Orioles' escalating season ticket sales figures by year: '79–1,623 . . . '80–4,018 . . . '81–5,215 . . . '82–5,430 . . . '83–6,051 . . . '84–11,738 . . . '85–11,707 . . . '86–hopefully 12,345.

This season, Rex will provide insightful interviews during HTS' pre-and post-game shows.

Rex, who also served as the stadium public address announcer for the Baltimore Colts from '69 to '83, has hosted a variety of radio sports shows in Baltimore and currently hosts a weekly call-in show on Orioles' flagship station WFBR-AM.

A former major league pitcher himself, Barney played with the Brooklyn Dodgers for six seasons (1943, '46-50). He appeared briefly with the Dodgers in 1943 before being called into the service for three years of military duty. He returned to the Dodgers in '46, compiling a career record of 35-31. His best season came in '48, when he won 15 games, including a sparkling 2-0 no-hit victory over the New York Giants.

Rex began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York City. He did Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57, and also broadcast games in the New York area for WOR-TV.

In '82 and '83, Rex served as color commentator for 16 Orioles' telecasts on subscription television. A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Rex resides just a half-mile from Memorial Stadium.

A graduate of the University of Baltimore, Davis began his career as a sports reporter at WBAL radio in '72. He later worked as a part-time sports anchor at WJZ-TV and WBAL-TV and as sports director at WCBM radio. While at WCBM, he was also the radio voice of the Baltimore Colts.

His insight and humor were key elements of the '85 telecasts.

Lowenstein's major league career began in '70 with the Cleveland Indians. He remained with Cleveland until '78 when he was traded to the Texas Rangers. After one year at Texas, Lowenstein, was sold to Baltimore where he spent the last seven years of his career with the Orioles.

DIAMOND VISION VIDEO BOARD

Memorial Stadium's "Diamond Vision" Scoreboard by Mitsubishi stands 25'7" by 33'3". Included among its many capabilities are instant replays, closeups, full color message board displays and animation.

There are now 11 "Diamond Vision" boards in big league stadia: Shea, Yankee, Dodger, Comiskey, Three Rivers, Arlington, Kingdome, Astrodome, Jack Murphy and Oakland.

The "black & white" board in left center field has been in use since the middle of the 1970 season.

CHUCK THOMPSON

A veteran of 44 years in broadcasting, Chuck Thompson is in his 27th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles. At the end of the '82 season, Chuck decided to curtail his broadcast schedule and in '86 he'll team once again with Brooks Robinson to do games on television only.

Chuck began his announcing career in 1939 at WEEU in Reading. Three yeras later he became a staff announcer for WIBG in Philadelphia, where he covered Temple University football.

After seeing combat in three major European campaigns for the U.S. Army in World War II, he returned to Philadelphia to describe the action of the Phillies and A's, Warriors, Eagles, and Rockets (ice hockey).

He came to Baltimore in 1949 to do play-by-play for the International League Orioles, the Baltimore Bullets, U.S. Naval Academy football, and the Colts in the All-America Conference.

In 1955 Chuck joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during the 24 years of that association did American League Orioles baseball for 19 years ('55-'56 and '62 thru '78), Colts football, Washington Senators baseball ('57-'61), and the NBC-TV "Game-of-the-Week" ('59-'60).

He has been named the outstanding sportscaster in Maryland by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association on numerous occasions. A golfing and fishing enthusiast, Chuck has 3 children and 5 grandchildren. He resides in Timonium.

MANAGER AND COACHES
EARL S. WEAVER

Born: Aug. 14, '30; 5'8"; 165; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: 2B

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Louis, MO . . . Now lives in Hialeah, FL (Miami).

Contract Status Signed thru '86.

Tenure: Joined O's 29 years ago this spring (Mar. '57) as minor league player-manager and has spent all but 20 months of that time with the Orioles organization (see "Sabbatical" below).

This will be his 39th year of association with organized baseball as player, manager, coach, scout, consultant, and radio-television commentator since he began as a 2nd baseman in the Cardinals.

Signed Originally with: St. Louis Cardinals in '48.

'85 Return: After being out of uniform for 2 years, 8 months, Earl returned as Orioles manager on Friday, June 14. He went 53-52 the rest of the way finishing the season in 4th place (83-78), one game back of the Detroit Tigers, and 16 games behind the division winning Blue Jays.

O's Hall of Fame/Number Retired: Earl (#4) is one of only 4 Orioles whose uniform has been retired (when he's not wearing it), and the only non-player. He shares that distinction with Frank Robinson (#20), Brooks Robinson (#5) and Jim Palmer (#22).

He is one of 14 to have been elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame.

Sabbatical: Upon his retirement as Orioles manager after the '82 season, Earl remained with the club as a consultant and special assignment scout.

In October, '83 prior to serving as an ABC-TV color commentator for the Orioles-Phillies World Series, he relinquished his position with the O's as required by ABC to avoid any "conflict of interest" speculation.

He had inherited a 4th place club with a record of 30-26, 7 games out of 1st (29-26 under Joe Altobelli, and 1-0 for Cal Ripken, who had managed the club on June 13).

Original Tour: Earl was serving as the O's 1st base coach when he was 1st appointed manager of the O's, replacing Hank Bauer on July 11, '68. He had been brought up from Rochester at the start of that year following a highly successful career managing in the minors.

He led the Orioles over the next 14½ seasons before stepping down at the end of the '82 campaign.

MANAGING RECORD

Ranks 4th in W/L Pct: Among those who have managed for 10 or more years exclusively in the 20th century, Earl ranks 4th on the all-time list:

1. Joe McCarthy—.614 (2125-1335)
2. Billy Southworth—.5934 (1064-729)
3. Frank Chance—.5929 (932-640)
4. Earl Weaver—.5917 (1407-971)
5. John McGraw—.589 (2840-1984)
6. Al Lopez—.581 (1422-1026)
7. Sparky Anderson—.577 (1426-1047)

Winning: Earl has won 6 Eastern Division titles ('69, '70, '71, '73, '74, '79), 4 American League pennants ('69, '70, '71, '79) and one World Series ('70) . . . He has finished 1st or 2nd in 13 of 16 tries (O's were 3rd in '72, and 4th in both '78 and '85).

Under his leadership, Baltimore has won 90 or more games in 12 of 14 full seasons, including 100 or more 5 times.

He had a losing record at Fitzgerald, Ga. in '57, his first full year as a manager (and first year in the O's organization), but has been over .500 in each of his next 26 seasons including '85).

In 21 of his last 25 seasons (or portions thereof), his clubs have finished 1st or 2nd . . . He has finished as low as 4th only twice ('78 and '85) in the last 22 seasons (after Fox Cities in '61).

All-Time Wins List: Earl ranks tied for 17th on the all-time managerial wins list (20th century exclusively) with the modern O's first skipper, Jimmie Dykes at 1407. The list is topped by Connie Mack (3776) and another former Orioles manager, John McGraw, (2840).

Among actives Earl trails: Gene Mauch—1734 and Sparky Anderson—1426.

1. Connie Mack–3773	7. Casey Stengel–1926	13. Sparky Anderson–1426
2. John McGraw–2840	8. Bill McKechnie–1898	14. Al Lopez–1422

5. Walter Alston–2040	11. Fred Clarke–1602	17. Earl Weaver–1407
6. Leo Durocher–2010	12. Clark Griffith—1491	17. Jimmie Dykes- 1407

100-Win Seasons: Earl has won 100 or more 5 times ('69-109, '70-108, '71-101, '79-102 and '80-100). He is tied with Connie Mack for 2nd place behind Joe McCarthy, a 6-time 100-game winner.

Sparky Anderson, Frank Chance and John McGraw have managed four 100-game winning clubs and Billy Southworth had 3.

During his first 3 full seasons ('69, '70, '71), his teams tied the major league record for most consecutive 100-win campaigns joining the Philadelphia A's ('29-'30-'31) and the St. Louis Cardinals ('42, '43, '44).

Vs. Individual Managers (thru '85): In head to head competition against his most frequent adversaries, Earl is: vs. Ralph Houk (119-75, .613) . . . vs. Sparky Anderson (39-26, .600, including 4-1 in '70 WS) . . . vs. Gene Mauch (49-36, .576), and vs. Billy Martin (94-86, .522, including 3-0 in '69 ALCS).

Sep.-Oct. Record: Earl's won-lost record (regular season only) in September-October is 301-181 (.624) which breaks down to 281-171 in September and 20-10 in October.

Last year the O's were only 16-19 in that period, but in his final full season as the Birds' manager, 1982, they went 22-10 (.688) in Sep.-Oct. and 33-11 (.750) from August 20 thru the end of the season. That was the year the O's beat the Brewers 3 straight times in the final series of the year to tie Milwaukee for 1st place before losing the final game and the pennant on the last day.

Ejections: Earl was ejected from 4 games in '85, boosting his lifetime total to 93 including one spring training exhibition ('80) and a '69 World Series game. The O's are 46-47 in games from which Earl has been ejected.

He had been back on the job for 5½ weeks last year before being thumbed by Dale Ford in Minny on July 22 for disputing a catch-trap call on a play by Twins outfielder Randy Bush. Before leaving the premises that night, Earl paid a call to Bush in left field just to get his point of view.

John Hirschbeck threw Earl and Rick Dempsey out of a game in Texas on August 11. Then on September 29, he was ejected twice—in the 1st game by Nick Bremigan and while exchanging lineups for the 2nd game by Jim Evans.

That double elimination was the 2nd of his career and drew Earl his 6th lifetime suspension. He had been bumped twice on August 15, '75 at Baltimore by Ron Luciano.

Speaking of Luciano, he and Marty Springstead lead the parade of ejectors with 7 apiece, followed by Evans and Bill Haller(5) . . . Among those who never threw Earl out of a game were Jim Honochick and the late Nestor Chylak.

Earl's busiest ejections season was 1975 when he exited early on 10 occasions. He has been tossed out by 41 different arbiters, including two amateurs during the '79 umpires' strike, one of those was Jim O'Connor, a Baltimore teacher who umpires locally, but once worked at the AAA level in the minors.

His 6th suspension which he served Oct. 1-2-3 was of 3 games duration. The only longer one imposed on him was the result of an incident with Terry Cooney at Memorial Stadium on July 17, '82 after which he sat down for a week. That resulted from physical contact between Earl and Cooney.

Clinching/Elimination: The earliest an Earl Weaver club has clinched a division championship was September 13, 1969 after 146 games when the Birds with a record of 101-45 held a first place lead of 18½ games.

The earliest elimination in Earl's career was September 23, '85 after 148 games. The O's at that point were 79-69, in 3rd place and 14½ games back of Toronto.

CSWS: Earl shares with Sparky Anderson the major league record for Most LCS (6), and Most LCS Games Managed (22), and is 2nd to Anderson in LCS Games Won (17 to 15).

Weaver's clubs have won 4 of 6 ALCS with an overall record 15-7 (swept in '69, '70 & '71; lost 2-3 in '73; lost 1-3 in '74 and won 3-1 in '79).

He is 1-3 in 4 World Series, 11-13 in games (lost 1-4 in '69; won 4-1 in '70, lost 3-4 in '71 and '79). He is 26-20 (.565) overall in post-season play.

He is one of 12 in big league history to have managed in 4 or more World Series. Tops on that list is Casey Stengel (10), followed by Joe McCarthy and John McGraw (9 each). Among actives, Anderson (5) is the leader, and Earl is next with 4.

All-Star Games: Earl managed in 4 All-Star games ('70, '71, '72, '80). Though he was only 1-3, he had the distinction in 1971 at Detroit of leading the A.L. All-Stars to their lone victory between '62 (2nd game) and '83. Frank Robinson was the MVP of the '71 game.

Earl was also the A.L.'s "honorary manager" in '74. He was named to manage the A.L. in May because Dick Williams, who had won the pennant the year before (at Oakland) was un-employed at the time. However, Williams returned to baseball July 1st (to manage Angels) and was appointed A.L. skipper.

Winter Leagues/Japan: He managed Santurce in the Puerto Rican League during the winters of '66-'67 and '67-'68, winning the post-season playoffs the first year and the pennant the next . . . He also managed the O's Arizona Instructional League clubs at Scottsdale during a number of off-seasons.

He has twice managed in Japan on post season tours. In '79 he led a group of A.L. stars against the National League on a 3-week tour and in '71 he directed the O's to a 12-2-4 record against Japanese competition on a month-long trip.

Manager of the Year & Other Awards: Earl made a clean sweep of the "Manager of the Year" awards for the first time in '79 . . . He was picked as the major league's top skipper by THE SPORTING NEWS for the 2nd time in 3 years ('77, '79); by the Associated Press as the A.L.'s best for the 3rd time in 7 years ('73, '77, '79), and by United Press International, also as the A.L.'s best, for the first time ever.

In '77 when he captured the TSN & AP awards, UPI's went to Bob Lemon, then with the White Sox.

He is one of 4 Orioles skippers to have earned one or more major "Manager of the Year" awards along with Paul Richards, Hank Bauer and Joe Altobelli.

In the Beginning: His managing career began while Earl was playing for the independent Knoxville club in the Class A South Atlantic (Sally) League in '56. Late in the season the club was 20 games under .500 and Manager Dick Bartel, a former 18-year infielder in the majors, was fired and Earl named to pilot the club thru the rest of the schedule. He went 10-24.

That winter, Jim McLaughlin, then the Orioles' farm director, and his assistant, Harry Dalton, both of whom knew Earl as a player and were impressed with his potential as a manager, hired him to run the Fitzerald club, one of 8 teams in the O's farm system.

"Thanks Earl" Day/Fond Farewell: He was honored on a beautiful Sunday afternoon September 19, '82, just a couple weeks prior to his retirement. Some 41,127 turned out to pay their respects during an often emotional and moving one hour, 15 minute pre-game ceremony on "Thanks Earl" Day.

The dramatic quality of the day was further enhanced by Rich Dauer whose 2 out, bottom of the 10th inning home run gave the O's a "sudden death" victory over the Indians, and by an impromptu post-game fan demonstration of affection.

Then, exactly 2 weeks later, he was honored, informally, again after the final game of the season, in which the O's lost the division title in a head-to-head fight with the Brewers.

While the Brewers celebrated their 1st division championship in the middle of the field, most of the 51,462 fans in the stands remained to bid the home town team and its outgoing manager a fond farewell that lasted for some 45 minutes.

It was perhaps the most heart-warming and emotional ad lib display of affection ever displayed at Memorial Stadium.

PLAYING CAREER

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in the St. Louis Cardinals system, and played as high as "AA". He was signed for the Cardinals by Walter Shannon who later served as the O's farm director.

Earl trained with the Cardinals big club in the spring of '52, but that became an academic experience when Red Schoendienst, the incumbent 2nd baseman, ended a holdout and signed his contract.

He played on pennant winner during each of his first 4 pro seasons; led his league in fielding 5 times, was a 3-time league "MVP" (Illinois State League—'48 . . . Western Association—'49 . . . Western League—'51), and was named to league all-star teams 5 times.

PERSONAL

He is a graduate of Beaumont High School in St. Louis . . . An ardent golfer and a dedicated gardener . . . Earl and O's Groundskeeper Pat Santarone, long-time friends who first met when both worked with the Elmira Pioneers in the Eastern League, wage an annual competition to see who can grow the largest tomatoes.

They collaborated several years ago in developing a plant food ("Earl and Pat's Tomato Food"), and it has become a best seller . . . Marketed and manufactured by Plantabbs Corporation, it can be used with any vegetable harvested above ground.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, now live permanently in Hialeah, FL (their home overlooks a golf course) . . . He has 3 children by a previous marriage: Michael Earl (Atlanta), Rhonda Lee (Houston), and Theresa Ann (St. Louis), and a step-daughter, Kim (Baltimore), plus 6 grand-children.

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS

Born: Dec. 22, '40; 6'1"; 185; Batted, L; Threw, R; Position: C

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, V.I. . . . Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.

Tenure: This is his 27th season in professional basesball . . . He has spent 16½ years in Baltimore organization . . . Had 10 years, 89 days service as a major league player.

Signed Originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves.

Major League Career: When he first joined the O's in '68, Ellie had spent 9 seasons in the minors . . . During the 18 years that have elapsed since then, he has been with Baltimore for nearly 16½.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's that winter, then logged 1½ years in the Yankees organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Birds.

Coach: Ellie was appointed bullpen coach in Nov. '77 . . . He also served as a player-coach for parts of the '78 and '79 seasons . . . He has also supervised off-season workouts the last 7 winters for players living in the Baltimore area.

He was the American League's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the 1982 all-star game in Montreal.

'79 Season: He coached exclusively all year until Sep. 1 when the roster expanded to 40 men . . . He made only one appearance, in a game at Detroit on Sep 19, and went 0-for-1 with a throwing error from behind the plate . . . He was not eligible for post-season play.

'78 Season: He started the season as a coach, but was activated six weeks later (on May 18) replacing Gary Roenicke who was optioned to Rochester. Ellie remained on the player list for the remainder of the year while also continuing as a coach.

Last Home Run: Ellie hit his last big league home run on Aug. 23, a blast off Oakland's Dave Heaverlo.

'78 Batting/ERA Leader: In 13 games Ellie batted .333 (6-for-18), and in his one career pitching stint he compiled a 0.00 era, thus leading the club in both categories (actually he tied Dave Ford in era . . . Ford pitched 15 scoreless innings in Sep.).

His pitching career took place in Toronto on June 26 where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays . . . Ellie worked 2.1 innings, allowing no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage that had been inflicted on four predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez and outfielder Larry Harlow) . . . Don Stanhouse then pitched the final inning and, inspired by Ellie's effort, he, too, held the Jays scoreless.

Yankees '76-'77: In '76 Ellie played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (12-for-57).

Ellie spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

Orioles ('68-'76): Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72 . . . However, when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Ellie played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69-'70-'71 . . . He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67 . . . Ellie had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

Odds and Ends: Ellie hit 2 grand slams for the Birds, both in Memorial Stadium: July 20, '70 off Chicago's Barry Moore, and Aug. 18, '75 off the Twins Dave Goltz . . . He nearly always caught when Mike Cuellar was pitching . . . He led the O's in batting on the '71 Japan tour with a .400 average (16-for-40).

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 average (18-for-66) in 23 postseason games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five championship and four World Series).

'70 WS: Ellie hit .364 (4-for-11) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games 1 and 2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run . . . See "Carbo-Burkhart Incident" below.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd, representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home, Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and Umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the runnners as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

Puerto Rico: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rico Winter League each year from '60-'77 except in '71 when the O's went to Japan . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him second on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

Minors: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico" . . . In his last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was second in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

Personal: Ellie is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform . . . He is an accomplished after-dinner speaker and is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area . . . Speaks fluent Spanish . . . Plays the flute.

Ellie was selected as the first "Man of the Year" by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Feb.'83 in recognition of his outstanding service to the community.

He has operated a two-week baseball camp for youngsters the past 4 summers at McDonogh School in Owings Mills.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early '70's.

Ellie has 4 children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62), Elrod, Jr., (4/7/64), Elroy (10/17/65), and Berecia (8/25/67).

He has managed the Cleveland Indians ('75-'77), Rochester Red Wings ('78) and San Francisco Giants ('81-84), as well as the Santurce Crabbers in the Puerto Rico League for 8 winters and the Culiacan club in the Mexican Pacific Winter League ('77-'78).

Made a dramatic debut as playing manager on Apr. 8, '75, before some 55,000 opening day fans at Cleveland Stadium. In his 1st at bat of that 1st game (he was dh, batting 2nd), Frank homered off Doc Medich (Boog Powell later homered in the same half-inning).

The Indians went on to win, 5-3 and that effort was voted "most memorable moment" in Tribe history by fans during baseball's observance of the U.S. Bicentennial celebration.

In that 1st year, the Indians fell 15 games below .500 by late June, but rallied and wound up 4th, just one game under . . . The next year, '76, they were 3 over. However, after a slow start in '77, Frank was released and succeeded by Jeff Torborg.

Frank became a big league coach for the 1st time after the Indians let him go as manager in '77. He joined Dave Garcia who had been his 3rd base coach at Cleveland ('75-'76) and was then managing the Angels.

He returned to Baltimore and coached for the O's for part of '78 and all of '79 and '80. During that period, he was responsible for vastly improving the quality of the O's outfield defense, and in '80 replaced Jim Frey (who left to manage the K.C. Royals) as the O's batting & 1st base coach.

After being released by the Giants in '84, he served the Milwaukee Brewers as batting coach.

San Francisco Giants: Was named manager Jan. 14, '81 replacing Dave Bristol (who had in turn replaced Joe Altobelli), and led the club to its first winning season since Altobelli did it in '78 and the first back-to-back winning seasons in a decade ('81 & '82) . . . After finishing 3rd in '82, the Giants dipped below .500 in '83 and '84 and on Aug. 4, '84 Frank was dismissed in favor of Danny Ozark who was named interim skipper.

During his tenure with the Giants, two former O's served on his coaching staff—Don Buford and Herm Starrette.

Rochester '78: Started the season as an O's coach, but after the late Ken Boyer was named manager of the St. Louis Cardinals (Apr. 28), Frank replaced him (May 9) at the Red Wings' helm.

He was 58-64 at Rochester which finished 6th. Doc Edwards was hired to manage the Wings in '79, and Frank returned to the O's as a coach, helping the O's to an A.L. pennant.

Cleveland '75-'76-'77: Joined Indians as player on Sep. 12, '74 from California in trade that ultimately sent Rusty Torres and

Ken Suarez to the Angels . . . Then, 3 weeks later, on Oct. 4, the day after that season ended, he was named the first black major league manager in baseball history, replacing Ken Aspromonte.

that milestone earlier that year . . . After leaving Baltimore, Frank jumped past Killebrew, Mel Ott, Ernie Banks, Eddie Mathews, Ted Williams, Jimmy Fox and Mickey Mantle.

Frank became the first (and only) player ever to hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium on May 8, '66 (second game) when he blasted a Luis Tiant (Cleveland) offering over the left field stands into the parking lot beyond . . . The drive measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 540' away from the plate (the longest measured hr in Memorial Stadium history was hit by Killebrew 471' on the fly to center off Milt Pappas on May 24, '65).

He set a major league record by hitting ten home runs in the month of April '69, but that mark has since been pushed to 11 by Willie Stargel, Mike Schmidt and Graig Nettles.

Set a club record with 49 homers in '66 . . . Also set marks that year for most homers by an Oriole against one opponent (11 vs. Det.) and most home runs, Memorial Stadium (27).

Hit his first in the opening inning of game one in Dodger Stadium with Russ Snyder aboard (Brooks followed immediately with another and the O's led 3-0 before the Dodgers batted) . . . O's won the game 5-2 . . . In game four his fourth inning solo provided the only run as the O's completed their sweep behind Dave McNally, 1-0.

In '71, game six vs. Pittsburgh in Baltimore, Frank's base running in the 10th inning allowed the O's to tie the series at three games apiece . . . He drew a one out walk, and despite ailing legs and sore Achilles Tendon, went from first to third on Merv Rettenmund's single up the middle just evading Richie Hebner's tag with a head first slide . . . Then, he scored on Brooks' short sac fly to Vic Davalillo in center.

Was batting .337 in late June '67 when he sustained serious injury in a second base collision with the White Sox' Al Weis . . . Missed a month and suffered from double vision for a year and a half afterward . . . Though he wound up with a .311 average that year, he slipped to .268 (with 15 homers and 52 rbi) in '68 while still recovering from that injury, compounded by an attack of mumps and a muscle tear in his right shoulder.

He returned to form the following spring and helped lead the O's to three straight pennants in '69, '70 and '71.

Following his trade to the Dodgers in Dec. '71 Frank's uniform #20 was retired. He was the first Oriole player to be so honored . . . In

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM

The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge . . . That was one by Boog Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 541' away from home plate.

JAMES (JIMMY) B. WILLIAMS

Born: May 15, '26; 5'10"; 180; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: OF Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in Toronto, Ontario, but has lived in Pueblo, CO for many years.

Tenure: This is his 40th season in professional baseball and his 9th with the Baltimore organization.

Signed Originally with: Brooklyn (Los Angeles) Dodgers.

Coach: Jimmy was appointed to the coaching staff in January '81 to replace Frank Robinson, who resigned to become manager of the San Francisco Giants. He serves as 1st base coach and works with the outfielders and baserunners.

Baltimore Organization: Jimmy became a manager in the O's farm system in '78 and guided clubs to the playoffs in each of his three seasons, including a pair of league championships.

In '80 he led the O's class AA team at Charlotte to the Southern League crown . . . The O's won the Eastern Division first half title but slipped to fourth in the second half before rebounding in the playoffs to beat Savannah, three games to none, and Memphis, three games to one, for the title . . . In '79 Charlotte also won the first half title but was eliminated by Columbus, Ga. in the first round of the playoffs.

The previous year, his first with the Orioles, Jimmy directed class A Miami of the Florida State League to the second half title, knocked off Ft. Myers in a one-game divisional playoff, then erased the Lakeland Tigers in a best of three final to win the pennant.

Managing/Coaching Background: Jimmy has logged 17 years as a minor league manager in the farm systems of the Dodgers ('63, '64, '76-'77), A's ('65 thru '69), Astros ('70 thru '74) and Orioles and owns over 1100 wins . . . He also spent the '75 season as the third base coach for the Houston Astros on the major league level.

His first of four pennants came in the Florida State League when he managed for A's at Leesburg in '66 . . . That year his club was 50-14 in the first half, fell to fifth in the second half, but came back to beat St. Petersburg in the FSL playoffs . . . That club led organized baseball with 232 stolen bases in 132 games, a FSL record that still stands, while Allen Lewis who went on to become Charlie Finley's "designated runner" stole 116, also a league mark . . . Jimmy also managed at Leesburg in '67 and put in another FSL campaign with Astros at Cocoa in '72.

Jimmy joined the Houston organization in '70 and won a pennant at Columbus in the Southern League (he also managed Columbus in '74) . . . He has managed at every level but "rookie" including four years at AAA: '69 (Des Moines), '71 (Oklahoma City), '73 (Denver), all in the American Association, and '77 (Alburquerque) of the Pacific Coast League.

He has also managed in: Santa Barbara ('63, California), Grand Forks ('64, Northern), Shelby ('65, Western Carolinas), Newport News ('68, Carolina), and Lodi ('76, California) . . . Served as a player-coach at Omaha (American Assocation) in '62.

Playing Career: He played for 18 years ('47 thru '64) as an outfielder in the Dodgers' system including occasional appearances in his first two years as a manager . . . He was outstanding in his first professional season in '47, earning "rookie of the year" honors in the Wisconsin State League and batting a composite .367 with three different clubs . . . That year he amassed 163 hits, 27 doubles, 15 triples, 12 homers, 121 rbi and 24 stolen bases in 117 games.

In '49 at Pueblo, he broke a Western league record with 42 stolen bases (in 43 attempts) . . . That mark was later broken by current Orioles' scout and field coordinator Len Johnston who swiped 64 at Colorado Springs in '53.

Jimmy never played in the majors but put five seasons at the AAA level ('55 thru '57 at Montreal in the International League) and '59 and '62 in the American Association . . . He hit over .300 in five different seasons.

Personal: Jimmy graduated from DeLaSalle High School in Toronto where he lettered in baseball, hockey, football, and lacrosse . . . He played minor league hockey (right wing) for the old Boston Olympics in the early 1950's and still performs as a defenseman for Pueblo's top semi-pro team in the off-season . . . His other hobbies include golf, tennis, and remodeling homes.

Jimmy and his wife, the former Lorraine Elliott, were married Sep. 21, '50 . . . They have two sons, Chris (6/10/52) and Kirk (11/11/56) and daughter, Julie (2/19/61). He was honored as Pueblo's "Sportsman of the Year" for 1983.

1985 SEASON SUMMARY

Led O's relievers in saves (14), wins (10) and games (54), and paced staff with 48 points in Miller-Brown relief pitchers rating system (see "ratings" below).

Converted 14 of 19 save opportunities; prevented 35 of 54 first batters from reaching base safely (.648, 4th best on club) and 26 of 38 inherited runners from scoring (.684, 3rd best on club) . . . Finished 43 of the 54 games in which he appeared.

Long Hot Stretch: On June 9 he gave up 7 hits & 7 runs (earned) while retiring only 2 batters in the 9th inning against Boston at home. To that point he had a 6.83 era (ip-27.2, h-39, er-22).

For the next 3½ months, from June 12 thru Sep. 29, turned it completely around . . . In that period, he was 5-3 with 12 saves in 34 appearances and maintained a 1.78 era (ip-55.2, h-40, er-11).

Did not allow any earned runs over 17.1 consecutive innings from Aug. 21 (9th inn.) thru Sep. 29. That streak ended when he lost to the Yankees Sep. 30. After assuming a 4-2 lead in the 8th, he gave up 3 in the 9th at N.Y., 2 of them on a Don Mattingly homer.

Over 6 appearances from Sep. 7 thru 20, went 1-0 with 5 saves. Had another 7 game scoreless (no earned runs allowed) stretch from June 18 thru July 6, spanning 6.2 innings.

Saves For: Saved at least one game for 9 different pitchers—2 each for Storm Davis, Ken Dixon, Dennis Martinez, Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor; and one each for Mike Boddicker, Mike Flanagan, John Habyan, and Sammy Stewart.

Late Innings Wins: Being a short reliever, his wins naturally came in the late innings (all in the 8th, 9th or 10th). In '85 Don's biggest benefactor was Mike Young who produced the gwrbi in 3 of his victories (July 2, Aug. 13 & Sep. 7) . . . Seven others contributed one gwrbi each.

Don was winner in 5 of the O's 8 "sudden death" victories and twice lost on the road in that dramatic manner.

Consecutive Days: In deference to his '82 arm surgery which kept him out of action for the better part of 2 years, Don pitched only twice on consecutive days during the first 3 months of the season (Apr. 27-28, June 17-18).

However, he worked 3 straight days in early July (6-7-8) and two straight on 3 other occasions during the 2nd half: July 20-21, Sep. 12-13 and Sep. 29-30.

Longest Outings: Don worked a season high 4 innings on July 12th and did not yield either a hit or run against the White Sox at Baltimore to save a 10-3 victory for Ken Dixon. He fanned 2 and walked 2 in that outing . . . He worked exactly 3 innings on 8 different occasions.

His longest stretch since returning from a 2-year injury sabbatical was 4.1 innings for California on Sep. 25, '84 (his final appearance of that season) at Kansas City.

Orioles Debut: Earned the win on opening day at Baltimore, beating the Rangers' Dave Rozema, 4-2, on Eddie Murray's 2-run homer in the bottom of the 8th . . . Don had relieved Storm Davis in the top of the 8th and yielded the tying run on a Pete O'Brien single.

Won his first 4 decisions for O's, extending his longest career winning streak to 8 straight over 2 years . . . String was broken on May 15 by Tom Seaver in Chicago. It was Don's 1st loss since July 20, '84 to Red Sox.

1985 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Arm Injury/Recovery: Went on disabled list June 3, '82 with "muscular strain", but was re-instated June 26 . . . On July 17, however, he came out of a game in Cleveland with a right arm that "felt like it was on fire from the elbow down".

On Oct. 18 Dr. Lewis Yocum performed surgery which included transplantation of a tendon from his left wrist to his right elbow . . . Did not pick up a baseball for the next 9 months, then embarked on a long and gradual program in which he ultimately began throwing on the side and eventually worked up to ¾ speed. However, he did not pitch competitively again until spring training of '84.

When he pitched on June 18, '84 vs. the Rangers at Anaheim, it was his first major league regular season appearance in one year, 11 months. He started the season on the DL, then went to Redwood in the California League May 10 for "injury rehabilitation". Returned to Angels May 30 and was activated June 13.

His save on July 2nd at Toronto ended a drought of nearly 2 years. His last had been on July 11, '82 vs. New York.

Did not allow a run in his first 4 appearances . . . Never pitched two days in a row during that '84 season . . . Worked his longest stint (4.1 innings) on his last appearance of the year (Sep. 25 at K.C.).

Had one other major injury earlier in his career. Developed tendinitis in right elbow while still in minors during '75 season . . . Condition worsened in '76 (scrubbing Red Sox' plan to promote him) and he did not pitch over the last 2 months.

Relieving/Starting: Was a starting pitcher originally and continued in that role during his 1st and 2nd seasons in the majors . . . Began relieving in 2nd half of '79 season for Angels, but returned to starting rotation the following spring.

Became exclusively a relief pitcher on Aug. 3, '80 (has not started since) . . . As a starter his career figures are: 30-32 with a 4.25 era (559 ip, 264 er) over 91 games.

In relief he has appeared in 168 games, gone 25-15 (.625) with 41 saves and a 3.04 era (ip-316.1, er-107).

When The Days Dwindle Down: Has had notable success pitching in September & October since breaking in with the Red Sox during the stretch run of '77 . . . He went 6-2 after coming up late in July and was 3-1 in September that year.

'85 was no exception. He was 2-1 with 8 saves in 12 appearances in Sep.-Oct. In those 2 months he has most wins (12), fewest losses (4), most saves (12) and lowest era (2.97) lifetime.

Vs. Opponents: Lifetime he is 25-26 with 26 saves and a 4.49 era vs. the East with a 4.49 era (ip-427.1, er-213); and 30-21 with 15 saves and a 3.17 era (ip-448.1, er-158) against the West. See complete stats vs. each opponent on page 66.

Was 1-6 lifetime vs. the Orioles . . . His only victory, a 6-4 verdict in relief over Tippy Martinez on May 1, '82 at Baltimore.

Vs. Boston: Gave up 9 runs over 3.2 innings in back-to-back efforts against the Red Sox June 7 & 9 (including 7 in 0.2 innings on the 9th), but held the Carmines scoreless in 4 other appearances and picked up 3 saves.

Vs. California: The Angels are the only opponent against which he has not recorded a career save . . . He's 2-1 in 4 lifetime appearances.

Vs. Chicago: Was 0-2 in '85 with 2 saves . . . Lifetime he's 1-6 with 5 saves.

Vs. Detroit: Yielded only one earned run and fanned 10 Tigers in 9.2 innings while going 2-0 with 2 saves in 4 games with an 0.93 era.

Vs. Kansas City: Is 6-0 with 2 saves and a 2.37 (ip-76, er-20) era vs. the Royals and has appeared in more games against them (23, one more than against the A's) than vs. any other single opponent.

Vs. Cleveland/Minnesota: Has beaten each a career high 7 times (7-3 vs. Cle. and 7-2 vs. Minny).

Vs. New York: Pitched in 7 games against the Bombers in '85, a high vs. one club, and was 0-2 with a save . . . His 6 saves lifetime are a career high.

California Angels: Was first Orange County native ever to play for the Angels.

Earned 7 of his 8 '84 saves against the A.L. East . . . Was one of only 3 A.L. hurlers to beat the Tigers' Cy Young Award winner Willie Hernandez . . . Suffered only loss to Boston's Bob Stanley. Won his last 4 decisions.

In '82 before he was beset by elbow injury, he jumped off to a 3-1 record with 2 saves and an 0.67 era (ip-27, er-2) in 10 games . . . Despite the abbreviated '81 season, Don set a career high (since surpassed) of 11 saves.

In both '79 and '80 he opened the season as a starter and moved to the bullpen in the 2nd half . . . Was 8-9 as a starter in '79 and only modestly successful in relief (1-1, 1 sv, 6.30 era).

In '80, however, after going 5-13 with a 4.90 era as a starter, he was 3-0 with 2 saves and an era of 2.08 in 19 relief appearances . . . That success precipitated his permanent assignment to the bullpen.

Was Angels' lone winner in '79 ALCS vs. O's . . . Beat Don Stanhouse in game 3 at Anaheim . . . Held O's to one run in last 4 innings, but was behind 3-2 until Angels rallied for 2 runs in bottom of 9th.

In '78, his first year with California, he was 8-8 thru August, then went 3-0 in September. That effort gave him a 6-1 Sep.-Oct. record after less than 2 full seasons in the majors.

Boston Red Sox: Was called up to the Red Sox July 26, '77 (from Pawtucket) in the midst of a pennant race and went 6-2 the rest of the way, all as a starter.

His first 2 big league efforts were highly notable . . . In his debut, on July 26, '77, the day he joined the Sox, he fanned 11 Brewers (still a career high) enroute to a 4-3 complete game win . . . The next time out, July 31, he pitched a 3-hit 1-0 shutout against the Angels in his native Orange County.

Minor League: Signed by Red Sox scout Joe Stephenson at age of 17 . . . In his first 2 pro seasons, led his league both times in losses: 0-10 in '72 New York-Penn League, and 12-15 in Florida State League the following year . . . Was 12-25 after 2 pro campaigns.

1985 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Eraser Rate: Despite a .262 (sb-76, cs-27) percentage against base-stealers in '85, Rick has an Orioles career percentage of .389 (sb-461, cs-294), and has picked off an additional 19 runners. For comparison's sake, since Rick became an Oriole, the league average vs. the stolen base has been .364 (sb-13,734; cs-7,852).

He tossed out 9 of 14 runners attempting to steal from opening day thru April 28.

In post-season play, he has tossed out 6 of 11 base-stealers . . . Threw out the first 9 base-stealers to run against him in '82 and in spring training that year nailed 10 in a row at one stretch . . . Is the only catcher ever to nip Julio Cruz twice in one game, on Sep. 1, '82 (with Steve Stone pitching).

Threw out 4 Angels in one game on May 12, '77 at Anaheim (Bobby Grich, Gil Flores, Jerry Remy and Don Baylor) and has gunned down 3 in one game 7 times (most recently July 8, '83 Seattle—Spike Owen twice and Dave Henderson.

Catching: Has a career fielding percentage of .987 in the A.L. (TC-6,001, E-74) and .988 (TC-5,554, E-61) for the O's . . . Has twice led the league's backstops in percentage: '81 (.998, 1 error in 420 chances) and '83 (.997, 2 errors in 658 chances).

He has made only 41 passed balls lifetime, 38 with the Orioles . . . To put that into perspective, J.C. Martin of the '65 White Sox had 33 in just one season.

Vs. LHP/RHP: His .321 (156-50) average vs. lefthanders was 117 points better than the .204 (206-42) he batted against righthanders . . . He hit 7 of his 12 home runs off lefthanded pitching.

Lifetime, the difference is not so desperate: vs. lefthanders-.266 (1169-311) and vs. righthanders-.232 (2069-479) . . . He's hit 30 homers against lefthanders and 32 vs. righthanders.

Over the last 2 seasons, Rick has batted .307 (241-74) off lefthanded pitching . . . In the 10 years he's been with the O's, he has had a higher average against southpaws 6 times.

1st Half/2nd Half: Since joining the O's Rick has batted .254 (1516-385) after the All-Star game and .227 (1775-403) prior . . . In '85 he hit .255 (212-54) in the first half and .253 (150-38) in the 2nd.

However, he was a more consistent 2nd half hitter. After batting .305 in April he hit only .198 (121-24) over the next two months; whereas, after batting .295 in July, he hit a much more respectable .264 (121-32) from August thru the balance of the season.

He has had a better 2nd half average in 7 of his 10 seasons in a Baltimore uniform. The biggest difference was in '82 when he hit .304 (158-48) after the break compared to only .215 (186-40) in the early part of the season.

Vs. Opponents: Batted .371 (35-13) against the Rangers, his seasonal high. His lowest average (.136, 22-3) was against the Angels, against whom he had batted .423 (26-11) with 4 home runs the year before . . . He was most productive vs. the Indians against whom he hit 4 home runs and drove in 10 in 13 games while batting .317 (41-13).

Despite a .143 (21-3) '85 average vs. the Twins, Rick's .283 lifetime mark (240-68) against the club that originally signed him and brought him to the majors is his highest vs. a single opponent.

He has hit a high of 8 career homers against the Red Sox, Angels and Indians . . . Outside of Baltimore he has hit most home runs in Fenway Park, Boston (5) . . . His rbi high is 37 lifetime vs. California.

Post-Season: Has career post-season average of .304 (17-56) in 19 games (7 ALCS & 12 WS) . . . Has appeared in 19 of O's 20 post-season games during his tenure in Baltimore.

Was unanimous '83 WS "mvp" . . . His 5 hits were all for extra bases (4 doubles and a homer), a 5-game WS record, and batted .385 (5-for-13) . . . Was awarded a Pontiac Trans Am from SPORT Magazine.

Had gwrbi double off Charlie Hudson in game 2, contributed 2 doubles in game 3, then homered (off Hudson again) and doubled in decisive game 5. Also threw out Joe Morgan twice in 3 tries trying to steal (no other Phillie attempted to run) . . . Started all 5 games (also started all 4 ALCS games in '83).

Batted .400 (4-for-10) vs. Angels in 4 game '79 ALCS.

PREVIOUS ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1984: An injury to his right shoulder sustained in spring training persisted thru the season and severely hampered his ability to throw out runners . . . Was hit twice in shoulder with foul tips in Florida, but continued to play and apparently aggravated the injury by altering his throwing motion to compensate for the pain.

Hit a career high 11 homers, 8 of them in his last 35 games (starting Aug. 17) . . . Batted .257 after the break (175-45) and .200 (155-31) in the 1st half . . . Played in 11 of 14 games on O's junket to Japan . . . It was his 2nd Japan tour, having accompanied major league All-Stars in '79.

Experimented with switch-hitting in the Fla. Instructional League, spring training and early in regular season, but gave it up in early May after going 2-for-13 (hits off Dennis Leonard and Angel Moreno).

1981 Season: Led A.L. catchers in fielding pct. at .998 (1 error) but compiled his lowest average as an Oriole (.215).

O's catching combo of Dempsey and Dan Graham contributed 93 rbi (while catching only). It was 2nd highest combined total in club history at that position behind: '73-103 (Earl Williams-65, Andy Etchebarren-23 and Ellie Hendricks-15).

Rick, Graham and Dave Skaggs amassed 90 assists to tie Texas catchers for league lead . . . Played 6 games in outfield and 2 at 1b.

1979 Season: Led A.L. catchers in assists (81) . . . Was batting .278 in mid-June, then tailed off to a final .239 . . . Accompanied Earl Weaver, Ken Singleton and Dennis Martinez on major league all-star trip to Japan after the World Series.

1978 Season: Batted .293 from June 23rd to end of year . . . Was batting only .209 thru June 22, but finished at .259 . . . Had 2 4-hit days at Kingdome . . . Went 3-for-4 with a home run on Aug. 30 off Ron Guidry who was 25-3 with a 1.74 era that year.

1977 Season: Became major league regular for 1st time and caught in 79 of O's 1st 83 games thru July 8 . . . That night he was hit by a Don Gullett pitch which broke a bone in his left index finger. Came off the disabled list Aug. 21 (Brooks Robinson went on voluntarily retired list to accommodate his return), but caught in only 12 more games the rest of the way.

1976 Season: After joining O's in mid-June, shared catching duties with Dave Duncan . . . Played 3 games in outfield . . . Batted .213 (37-for-174) for the O's and .119 (5-for-42) for the Yankees.

THE 1985 SEASON

Missed the entire first half of '85 after suffering his 2nd major injury in the past 3 seasons . . . Tore left Achilles Tendon in January while playing basketball . . . Was feared lost for the season, but quick recovery allowed him to start the O's 2nd game after all-star break (for further details see below under "Injury")

Although he experienced his first losing record since his rookie season ('76), has not had a losing full season in the majors.

Was activated on July 20 and started at home that day vs. Kansas City . . . Lost 7-5, in 3 inning effort (5 h, 5 r-er, 2 bb, 2 so,).

Went 8 innings in each of next 2 starts, equalling his longest outings of year . . . Won at Chicago, 5-1, on July 25 (3 h, 1 bb, 3 so), his first win since Sep. 20, '84, and took no decision vs. Toronto on July 30 (4 h, 1 bb, 2 so).

Struggled in all 6 starts during August losing 3 of 4 decisions (7.12, 30.1 ip, 24 er) . . . A 6-0 loss to Seattle on Aug. 31, left him 2-4 with a 5.84 era (49.1 ip, 32 er) after 9 starts.

Returned to form in September going 2-1 (3.09, 35 ip, 12 er) in 5 starts that month . . . Highlight was 4-2 win over New York and '86 teammate Rich Bordi on Sep. 20, the Orioles only win over the Yankees in '85.

Lone loss in September was 3-0 defeat at Milwaukee on Sep. 25, his only complete game of the season and first since Sep. 10, '84 . . . In 2 other starts that month he left late in game with 2-run leads, but failed to get win either time when O's relievers failed (3-1 lead vs. California on Sep. 8 and 4-2 lead at New York on Sep. 30).

Injury/Rehabilitation: Tore Achilles Tendon while playing in charity basketball game with O's team on Jan. 23 in Laurel, MD . . . Underwent surgery the next day . . . Cast was not removed until April 2 . . . Began running in June and threw batting practice for first time on June 19.

Assigned to Hagerstown for rehabilitation and pitched in one game on July 10 . . . Threw 6 shutout innings vs. Kinston, allowing only one hit (4 so, 4 bb).

For details on other injuries in career, see below under "Previous Injuries".

Miscellaneous: Fanned a season-high 9 batters at New York on Sep. 30 in no decision . . . O's were 7-8 in his 15 starts . . . Nearly half of his runs allowed (23 of 49) resulted from home runs . . . He was charged with 14 homers in 86 innings

Was 3-1 (4.56, 49.1 ip, 25 er) vs. the Eastern Division and 1-4 (5.89, 36.1 ip, 24 er) against the West.

1985 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Winning Workhorse: Despite missing the first half of '85, has still made more starts (272) than any other A.L. hurler since he became a regular starter for the O's at the start of '77 (Ron Guidry is 2nd with 265).

During those 9 years, has logged 1,822.2 innings, bettered by only 2 other A.L. pitchers: Guidry (1,994.2) and Jack Morris (1855.1) . . . Scott McGregor is next on the list with 1,820.2 innings . . . Flanny's 126 wins during that period are 2nd to Guidry's 154 and just ahead of McGregor's 125.

O's All-Time List: Ranks 4th on O's all-time win list (129) behind Jim Palmer (268), Dave McNally (181), and Mike Cuellar (143), just ahead of Scott McGregor (125).

is 3rd in strikeouts (1,079) behind Palmer (2,212) and McNally (1,476) . . . Is 4th in complete games (92) and innings (1,918).

Needs one game to become only the 8th pitcher to appear in 300 or more games in an Oriole uniform.

ALCS/WS: Has 3-1 record in 6 post-season games with a 3.48 era over 31 innings.

Won game 3 vs. White Sox in '83, beating Richard Dotson by a final count of 11-1. That was game in which Mike hit Ron Kittle in the knee, and Dotson retaliated by hitting Cal Ripken and throwing at Eddie Murray, a tactic that resulted in a 2-run O's 5th inning which gave Birds commanding 6-1 lead.

Started against Steve Carlton in '84 WS #3 at Philly but left after 4, trailing 2-0 . . . Palmer ultimately picked up the 3-2 win in game featuring 3 former Cy Young Award winners.

Won 2nd game of '79 ALCS vs. Angels after O's staked him to 9-1 lead thru 3 innings . . . Was still leading 9-4 but was in trouble when Don Stanhouse relieved him in 8th and O's barely won, 9-8.

In WS vs. Pirates, Mike won opener, 5-4, after being staked to 5-0 lead in 1st . . . Lost game 5 at Pittsburgh though he trailed only 2-1 when he left for pinch-hitter. Pirates went on to win 7-1 . . . Was one of 5 relievers to pitch in 9th inning of 7th game won by Bucs, 4-1.

Cy Young/Other Awards: After going 23-9 in '79, was landslide winner of BBWAA award, capturing 26 1sts and 2 2nds among 28 ballots cast for a total of 136 points (5-3-1) . . . Was only one named on all ballots and was well ahead of Yankee lefties Tommy John (1 first, 51 points) and Ron Guidry (1 first, 26 points).

That was one of 6 Cy's won by O's in 12 year period from '69 thru '80 . . . See list under "Awards" on page 24.

That year also he was named A.L. "pitcher of the year" by TSN and was picked as top southpaw on TSN, AP & UPI All-Star Teams . . . Was 6th in "mvp" balloting (highest ranking pitcher) and was named "graduate of the year" by both Junior American Legion and Babe Ruth programs.

Pickoffs/Caught Stealing: Picked 2 runners off base (including those scored as caught stealing) . . . Now has a career total of 57 pickoffs, an Orioles record . . . In his 9 years in the O's regular rotation, opposing runners have had less than an even chance to steal a base on him . . . A total of 67 have made it, but 68 haven't.

Home and Away: Has a .676 (73-35) lifetime record at home, but is only 56-57 (.496) on the road . . . Owns a winning record in only four enemy ballparks - Minnesota HHH (3-2), Oakland (10-1), Yankee Stadium (7-4) and Toronto (5-4).

His era is 4.18 (950.1 ip, 441 er) on the road, and 3.44 (967.2 ip, 370 er) at home.

By-Month Lifetime: April: 13-15; May: 23-10; June: 22-17; July: 17-16; Aug.: 24-17; Sep.: 28-16; Oct.: 2-1.

Vs. Opponents: Has a losing lifetime record against only 3 clubs: California (3-7), Kansas City (9-13), and Milwaukee (8-10) . . . Was 3-1 in '85 vs. the East (4.56 era, 49.1 ip, 25 er) in '85 and 1-4 (5.89 era, 36.2 ip, 24 er) against the West . . . Lifetime he is 64-46 (.582) vs. the East and 65-46 (.586) vs. the West. See page 67 for '85 and lifetime stats vs. each opponent.

Vs. Detroit: Although he failed to survive the 2nd inning in no decision against the Tigers in his last start on Oct. 5, has won 4 of his last 5 decisions against them over 6 starts while tossing 4 complete games.

Vs. Milwaukee: At one time owned a 6-3 record against the Brewers, but has lost 7 of his last 9 decisions to them beginning in '80.

Vs. Minnesota: Did not pitch against the Twins in '85 and was 1-2 against them the previous season, but has a 15-4 lifetime mark, best against a single opponent . . . Won 14 straight against the Twins from May 29, '77 to Apr. 7, '84.

Vs. New York: Earned the O's only victory against the Yankees in '85 and was the club's most effective pitcher against the Bronx Bombers (2.51 era, 14.1 ip, 4 er) in 2 starts . . . Has now defeated them 6 straight times over his last 9 starts . . . Hasn't lost to them since Tommy John beat him at Memorial Stadium, 4-3, on Aug. 15, '80.

Immediately prior to win streak had lost 5 straight and before that had won 5 straight . . . Lifetime is 12-7 against New York.

Vs. Oakland: Suffered first loss ever at the Oakland Coliseum, 10-4, on Aug. 25 in only '85 appearance against the A's . . . Has a 10-1 lifetime record there and a 2.22 era (101.1 ip, 71 h, 25 er) while completing 6 of 14 starts . . . Overall is 15-5 against the A's.

Vs. Toronto: Has not beaten Toronto since 8-3 win at home on Aug. 25, '82 and is 0-2 in 4 starts since . . . However, his lifetime era of 2.73 (181 ip, 55 er) is his lowest against an opponent and his 15-6 record is bettered only by his marks against Minnesota and Oakland . . . He's 10-2 lifetime against Toronto at Memorial Stadium.

Previous Injuries: In '78, was plagued thru 2nd half of season with painful bursitis in left ankle which severely hampered his efficiency.

In '80, though he missed no time, his performance was diminished by a sore left shoulder that developed in late June. After that season the problem was diagnosed as "tired arm" by Dr. Stanley Cohen of Baltimore and Dr. Arthur Pappas, the Red Sox physician. They prescribed a continuing physical therapy and weight program.

His string of 157 straight starts without missing a turn ended late in '81 when he tore a muscle in his left forearm Aug. 23 . . . Didn't pitch for 26 days . . . Hadn't missed an assignment in more than 4 years (since '77), but had begun feeling stiffness as early May 14 that year ('81).

On May 17, '83 sustained ligament damage to left knee while fielding a ground ball in first inning vs. Chicago. He apparently twisted knee after catching spikes in the ground . . . BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on Apr. 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American League game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

Strikeout Highs:—9, twice, (Aug. 30, '81 vs. Cal. at Bal. and Aug. 30, '80 vs. Cal. at Bal.); 7, 3 times (latest Oct 3, '85 vs. Bos. at Bal.).

Walk Highs:—7, (Aug. 24, '75 vs. Cal. at N.Y.); 5, twice, (June 14, '80 at Sea. and June 12, '84 at Mil.)

Winning Streaks:—6, (July 28, '76 thru Aug. 3, '77); 5, twice, (May 23, '79 thru July 23, '79 and June 21, '83 thru Sep. 18, '83).

Losing Streaks:—4, twice, (July 20, '84 to present and Sep. 19, '81 thru May 1, '82).

Tippy experienced his least effective season since '78 and did not lead the O's in saves for the first time in 5 years (since '80) . . . His saves total (4) was his lowest since '79 (he'd averaged 15 from '80 thru '84), his appearances lowest since '79 (except for abbreviated '81 season) and his innings lowest since '78 (except '81) . . . His era (5.40) was the highest of his pro career.

Though he was never on the disabled list, he did suffer from time to time with a sore shoulder as he tried to snap back from should problems that had sidelined him in September of the previous year.

Nevertheless, he boosted his club record for career saves to 104 (Stu Miller is 2nd with 88) and jumped his total appearances as an Oriole to 485, 2nd only to Jim Palmer's 558.

First Batter Efficiency/Inherited Runners: Was tops on the staff in inherited runners scored (.763 efficiency) and he retired 39 of 48 1st batters (.822).

Save Opportunities: Though no one has yet come up with a mutually agreed upon definition for "save opportunities", Tippy converted only 4 of 11 according to our system.

Miller-Brown Reliever Rating System: Tippy ranked 4th on the staff (see Don Aase's biog for '85 rankings) with only 6 positive points: 13 holds (+13), 3 wins (+6) and 4 saves (+12),less 19 squanders (−19) and 3 losses (−6).

The system was devised in '82 (see O's pr people for specs) and in the 1st 3 years, Tippy was; '82—1st (59 points), '83—1st (84 points), '84—2nd (30 points, Sammy Stewart had 40).

Miscellaneous: Opponents batters hit him at a .261 clip (268-70). Saved games for Don Aase, Mike Boddicker, Mike Flanagan, and Dennis Martinez.

His longest outing of the season was 6.2 innings on Oct. 3 against the Red Sox at Baltimore, his last appearance of the season . . . In that effort in which he had no decision or save, Tippy fanned a season high 7 batters while allowing only 2 hits and one run. It was one of his best performances of the year.

Orioles Only: Since the Yankees traded him to the O's in June '76, Tippy has gone 52-38 (.578) with 104 saves, compiled a 3.41 era (ip-737, h-647, er-279), walked 354 and fanned 563.

Lifetime Saves for (O's Only): 15—Mike Flanagan & Dennis Martinez. . . . 14—Scott McGregor . . . 11—Jim Palmer . . . 10—Mike Boddicker . . . 8—Storm Davis . . . 6—Steve Stone . . . 5—Rudy May & Sammy Stewart . . . 4—Ross Grimsley . . . 2—Dave Ford & Bill Swaggerty . . . 1—Don Aase, Dick Drago, John Flinn, Joe Kerrigan, Dyar Miller, Dave Pagan and Allan Ramirez.

May	9	7	22	88	August	10	8	14	103

Starts: He has started only 2 games in 529 major league appearances, both losing efforts for the Yankees in '75—to Boston July 27 and to California on August 24.

Sudden Death: Has won 33 games lifetime at Memorial Stadium, 18 of them "sudden death". Has lost only 4 on the road in "sudden death".

Vs. Yankees: Though he didn't have a decision or save vs. the Yankees in '85, He still has more wins (9), losses (6), saves (16), appearances (61) and innings (86.2) against the club with which he signed originally and broke into the majors. His career era vs. New York is 2.39 (er-23).

During a 3 season stretch (between losses to the Bombers on June 23, 81 and June 23, '84), Tippy went undefeated while winning 3, and saving 11 over 22 appearances during which his era was a nifty 0.49 (ip-36.2, er-2).

He also went 19 games in a row without allowing the Yankees an earned run (spanning 30.2 innings). It began when he gave up a run on Sep. 26, '81 and ended when he yielded another on June 22, '84.

Vs. Other Opponents: Has won at least one game against every opponent except the California Angels against whom he is 0-3 with 9 saves . . . He is 6-1 lifetime against the Rangers with a career low 2.30 era (ip-58.2, h-37, er-15) in 33 games.

He has no wins or losses at the Minnesota Metrodome or Anaheim Stadium though he has accumulated 3 and 7 saves respectively in those 2 parks . . . He is 0-2 at Toronto with 8 saves and 0-2 at Cleveland with 4 saves.

Has a losing won-lost record against only 2 opponents: California (0-3, 9 saves) and Cleveland (1-2, 8 saves).

In '85 was touched for 10 hits and 9 earned runs in 9 inninngs vs. Mariners and was 0-1 against them.

Gopher Balls: Has given up 27 hame run balls in last 3 years ('83-10, '84-9, '85-8), but has yielded only 51 lifetime . . . In prior years he was extremely stingy: '74-0, '75-2, '76-1, '77-2, '78-4, '79-0' '80-5, '81-4' '82-6.

Has thrown 12 "gophers" to the Tigers lifetime, but only one to the Twins (Tom Brunansky—7/4/84 at HHH) and to the A's (Wayne Gross—5/8/83 at Bal.).

Vs. Each Opponent: Det-12; KC, NY-6 each; Tor-5; Sea-4; Bos, Chi, Cle, Tex-3 each; Cal, Mil-2 each; Min, Oak-1 each.

Lance Parrish of the Tigers and the Blue Jays' Cliff Johnson have hit 2 lifetime off Tippy in Memorial Stadium.

Tippy had never given up 2 homers in a game until April 9, '83 when he yielded his only grand slam, to George Vukovich, at Cleveland Stadium, then gave up a back-to-back solo blast to Julio Franco. He has since yielded 2 homers in same game 2 additional times (both in '84).

He once had a string of 65 straight homerless appearances (ip-123.2) over nearly 2 full years, between May 23, '78 and April 19, '80 when the White Sox' Marv Foley broke the string (a 12th inning game-winner here in Baltimore) . . . He also went 55 games without serving up a home run ball from May 20, '76 to July 26, '77.

Post-Season: Has a 1.74 post-season era in 8 appearances (ip-10.1, er-2). Was 1-0 with 2 saves in '83 over 5 games and allowed only 1 er in 9 innings.

His victory in game 4 of the ALCS at Chicago was at the expense of Brit Burns and was made possible by Tito Landrum's 10th inning homer (O's later scored 2 more runs, and won 3-0). Tippy is thus one of only 3 Orioles pitchers to have clinched a pennant. The others: Jim Palmer (4) and Scott McGregor (1, '79).

He also saved games 3 and 4 of the '83 World Series, both at Philadelphia . . . In '79, he did not pitch in the ALCS, but did relieve in 3 WS games (2, 5, 7).

Pickoffs: Though Tippy has been a big pickoff aficionado during his big league career, he will long be remembered for picking 3 Toronto runners (Barry Bonnell, Dave Collins, and Willie Upshaw) in the 10th inning on Aug. 24, '83 in Baltimore. It was his first pickoff since June 29, '77.

That classic was chosen last summer as one of the top 5 most memorable Orioles games ever, in a contest run by the Babe Ruth Museum. The O's battled from behind to win for Tippy on a home run by Lenn Sakata who was making his first and only major league appearance as a catcher . . . See details under vs. Toronto (page 55).

Experienced the best month of his career in July during which he did not allow a run in 16 appearances totaling 19 innings while surrendering only 6 hits plus 3 walks and striking out 22. In that span he was 2-0 with 5 saves and 7 "holds" and was voted A.L. "player of the month".

Over 5 straight appearances starting July 23, he yielded only one hit and no walks and retired 36 of 38 batters faced . . . Also set down 18 of 19 hitters in consecutive appearances June 22 & 23, both vs. Detroit, and won both in "sudden death" . . . Did not pitch in ALCS, but did relieve in 3 WS games (2, 5, 7).

Joined Yankees for 1st time in Aug. '74 then almost made the club at the start of '75. However, an injury to Dick Tidrow (rhp) necessitated adding another righthander to the staff instead. Won the James Dawson Award as the top rookie in the Yankees' '75 spring camp.

Was recalled from minors July 16, '75 and went on to lead the staff in saves (8) . . . Lyle was 5-7 with only 6 saves that year for N.Y.

THE 1985 SEASON

Although Scotty's string of 7 straight winning seasons was snapped, he beat Detroit, 5-2, in his final start to avoid first losing season since rookie campaign in '77 . . . Led club in wins (14), lowest total to lead the O's since '67 (excluding abbreviated '81 season) when Tom Phoebus also won 14 . . . Lost a career-high 14 games, and allowed major league career-highs in era (4.81), home runs (34) and walks (65).

Topped the Birds in starts (34) and innings pitched (204) and was tied for 2nd in complete games with Storm Davis (8) . . . His 34 home run balls tied with Milwaukee's Danny Darwin for league lead and were one shy of club record set by Robin Roberts in '63 (35).

Didn't get past the 4th inning in 8 starts and didn't finish 5 innings in 11 outings . . . Was knocked out 3 times before completing the 2nd inning. Had been KO'd that early only 5 times in 223 starts prior to '85 . . . Averaged just under 6 innings per start, a career-low.

Suffered the slowest start of his career . . . Plagued by blurred vision in several early starts (apparently caused by improper diet) . . . After his 7th start, a 5-3 loss to Kansas City on May 14, he was 1-4 with a 7.92 era (30.2 ip, 27 er, 0 cg's).

Following that loss, he was diagnosed as having a slight weakness in his throwing arm . . . Skipped a start, began a weight program and then won his next 3 starts all in complete games beginning with a 3-0, 3-hit win at Oakland on May 22.

From May 22, thru July 28, he was 8-4 (3.54 era, 99 ip, 39 er, 5 cg's) in 14 starts . . . Then went 1-4 (9.39 era, 23 ip, 24 er) in his next 6 starts . . . Finished strong going 4-2 in his last 7 turns (3.88 era, 48.2 ip, 21 er).

Miscellaneous: Has won 13 or more in 8 straight seasons . . . Orioles were 19-15 in his 34 starts . . . Was 2nd on club with 3 pickoffs (Dennis Martinez led the club with 8) and lifetime has now picked off 35 runners, 2nd among current Orioles to Mike Flanagan (57) . . . Was 8-6 at home, tying for club lead in wins at home with Don Aase, and was 5-1 in his last 7 starts at Memorial Stadium.

Worked 1.1 innings of relief vs. Chicago on July 14, his first relief appearance since Sep. 12, '81 . . . Brought a career standard of 1.95 walks per 9 innings into '85 season, but walked an average of 2.87 last year.

1985 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Winning: Though he won only 3 of his first 12 career decisions, has gone 107-64 (.626) record over the past 7 years ('79-'85) representing 2nd highest won-lost pct. in majors for that period (min. 100 dec.), trailing only Ron Guidry (.665, 113-57) . . . Ranks just ahead of Steve Carlton (.618, 107-66) and Lamarr Hoyt (.612, 90-57).

In the 8 seasons since becoming a regular starter ('78-'85), has won 122 games, tied for 4th most in the majors during that span. Guidry leads with 138, followed by Carlton and Joe Niekro with 123. Tied with McGregor are Phil Niekro and Jack Morris . . . With 94 wins in the last 6 seasons ('80-'85), trails only Morris (102) and Guidry (95).

Shutouts: Hurled only one shutout in '85, a 3-hit, 3-0 win at Oakland on May 22 . . . Ranks 5th on O's all-time list . . . Has pitched all 20 career shutouts over the last 8 seasons ('78-'85) and is tied for 4th in the majors during that period behind Fernando Valenzuela (23), Ron Guidry (21) and Bill Rogers (21) . . . Nolan Ryan, Dave Steib and Steve Carlton also have 20 apiece.

Despite 6-10 lifetime record vs. Yankees (see "vs. New York" below), has shut out the Bombers 4 times and one other victory was a combined shutout . . . Has blanked Minnesota and Toronto three times each and Chicago and Oakland twice each.

While his base on balls ratio of 2.69 per 9 innings over the past 2 seasons has been uncharacteristically high, (he had a 1.88 career ratio thru '83) he has a 2.05 career yield that ranks 4th on O's all-time list (min. 500 innings) behind Dick Hall (1.47), Robin Roberts (1.81) and Hal Brown (1.98) . . . Was 2nd in majors in '83 at 1.56 behind Lamarr Hoyt (1.07) among qualifiers, and led A.L. in '79 at 1.18.

His 81 hits during that stretch were the most on the club.

1985 SEASON SUMMARY

In his 4th full A.L. season, Cal drove in a career high 110 runs, played every game and every inning to extend his streaks in those 2 categories (603 games and 5457 innings, see "Ironman" below).

And for the THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR:

(1) Scored 116 runs to become the first Oriole ever to reach triple figures in 3 different seasons.

(2) Led all major league shortstops in runs, home runs (26), rbi (110), slugging percentage (.469) as well as in double plays (123).

(3) And, was awarded the following honors:
(a) "Silver Slugger" Award (TSN/Hillerich & Bradsby) as the major league's best offensive shortstop;
(b) TSN's A.L. All Star team;
(c) A.P. Major League All Star team (this year beating out Ozzie Smith, 67 to 48);
(d) U.P.I.'s A.L. All Star team.

Cal, over the past 3 years, led the majors in extra base hits-218 (Dale Murphy had 211), and doubles-121 (Wade Boggs had 117). He was 2nd in total bases-969 (Murphy had 984, and Murray 917 for 3rd place) and hits—587 (Boggs had 653). Cal ranked 3rd in runs (340) behind Rickey Henderson (364) and Murphy (343).

For the 2nd season in a row he was elected to start at shortstop for the A.L. in the All Star game (see "All Star Game" below), and, along with Eddie Murray, formed the first Orioles "elected entry" since 1972.

Was 2nd in the A.L. in runs with 116, behind Henderson's 146. (Murray was 3rd with 110); 6th in rbi (110), tied for 5th in gwrbi (15) and tied for 8th in total bases (401).

Was either first or 2nd among the Orioles in 12 positive offensive categories: 1st: G, AB, R, H, 3BH, GWRBI (tie) and SF (tie); 2nd: 2BH, HR, BB, AVG, & AVG with men in scoring position (.321, among qualifiers).

He also set a club record for most GIDPs (32), surpassing Brooks Robinson's 1960 total (29) and ranked 2nd in the A.L. behind Jim Rice (35).

In addition to leading major league shortstops in double plays, he paced A.L. shortstops in putouts (286), and was 2nd by a hair to Toronto's Tony Fernandez in both assists & total chances (see details under "Fielding" below).

Ironman: Extended his consecutive game streak to 603, a club record, surpassing Brooks (463) and Murray (444) who had ranked 1-2 at the start of the season.

He has not missed a game since sitting out 2nd game of a doubleheader on May 29, '82 (Floyd Rayford subbed for him at 3rd base) . . .This is the 2nd longest current streak in the majors behind Atlanta's Dale Murphy (657).

Every Inning: His streak of 5457 consecutive innings represents what is believed to be a major league record. It spans a stretch of 599 games and began on June 5, '82 (the day after Jim Dwyer pinch hit for him in the 9th inning and 6 days after he started his consecutive games string). The 82 post-season innings Rip played in '83 are not included in the totals.

At the time the innings streak began, Cal was a 3rd baseman, but he switched to shortstop on July 1, '82.

Baseball researcher L. Robert Davids has concluded that the two longest consecutive innings streaks in major league history, prior to Ripken, were established by a pair of old Carmines (Red Sox) back in '02-'03-'04. Buck Freeman, a 1st baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (July 28, '01 to June 5, '05), and teammate Candy LaChance, an outfielder who played every inning during '02-'03-'04, extending his string to 424 games before it was terminated Apr. 28, '05. Both Freeman and LaChance were uncles of Sox Road Secretary Jack Rogers.

Rip is the first major leaguer to have played in every inning for at least 2 consecutive years since Rudy York of the Detroit Tigers ('40 & '41). In addition to Ripken, LaChance, and Freeman, the only other major leaguer to have played in every inning in 3 full seasons (not consecutive) was Mickey Vernon ('42, '47, '53 with the Pesky Nats). Only 9 have done it in 2 seasons (not necessarily consecutive).

Four other O's have played in every game of a season: Brooks-4, Eddie-3, Billy Gardner and Bobby Grich-one each . . . However, Murray is the only other to have played every inning in a season ('84 including 3 games as a dh).

Odds and Ends: Was last at the .300 level (at .302) on June 5 after going 11-for-20 in a 4-game stretch . . . His late-season high was .287 (578-166) on Sep. 18 & 20, and his late-season low was .263 on Aug. 9.

He had a 17 game hitting streak, a career high (Aug. 23 thru Sep. 10), and hit safely in 31 of 34 (Aug. 14 thru Sep. 18, .353, 136-48) . . . Rip also had a 12 game streak embedded in a 25 of 27 stretch (Apr. 20 thru May 21; .352, 108-38).

Enjoyed his 3rd 5-hit game in the majors (and 2nd at Minnesota) on May 5 and picked up 4 rbi . . . On Sep. 2 at Baltimore he set a career high with 5 rbi while hammering 2 home runs against Oakland.

Though Rip stole only 2 bases and Eddie Murray only 7, both of them scored more runs that Cardinal's Rookie Vince Coleman (107) who led the majors with 110 steals.

The Blue Jays' Tony Fernandez nosed him out in assists (478 to 474) and in successful chances, i.e. excluding errors, by just one chance (761-760) . . . The '85 big league leader in that category was Ozzie Smith (813).

In '84 Rip set an A.L. record with 583 assists (broke Roy Smalley's '79 mark of 572) and also led big league shortstops in total chances (906), double plays (122) and putouts (297).

His 880 successful chances in '84 were the most by an A.L. shortstop since Leo Cardenas handled the same number in '69 . . . The Cardinals' Smith is the only major league shortstop since World War II to have handled more chances excluding miscues (909 in '80). The major league record is 984 by the Giants' Dave Bancroft.

In '83 Cal led all big league shortstops in assists (534) and led A.L. in double plays (113) plus total chances (831), only 3 fewer than major league leader Smith.

Played both 3rd base and shortstop after coming up in August '81, but started '82 as the regular 3rd baseman . . . Moved to short for good on July 1, '82 . . . Already ranks 3rd in games played at shortstop by an Oriole (591) behind Mark Belanger and Luis Aparicio (713).

His career fielding average at shortstop is .970 (TC-3017, E-92) . . . By year, '81 thru '84: '81-.946 (TC 37, E-2); '82-.972 (TC-457, E-13); '83-.971 (TC-831, E-25); '84-.970 (TC-906, E-26).

He has played 77 games at 3rd base ('81-6, '82-71) and also has a .970 percentage at that position (TC-232, E-7).

Cycle: Hit for the cycle at Texas May 6, '84 . . . Homered off Dave Tobik on final at bat in 9th inning to complete the job . . . Was 4-for-5 with 2 rbi . . . Brooks Robinson is the only other Oriole to have hit for cycle (July 15, '60 vs. White Sox) during the O's 32 seasons in the A.L.

Clutch Hitting: Batted .321 (165-53) with runners in scoring position in '85 and has a lifetime figure of .293 (638-187) in that situation . . . Has hit over .300 ('83-.313, '84-.311) in each of the last 3 campaigns with men on 2nd and/or 3rd and has batted at a .315 clip (476-150) in that span..

Tied with Eddie Murray for club lead in gwrbi (15) last year, and was 2nd to Eddie in "key runs produced", 76 to 58 (rbi that put O's within one run of a tie, tied game, put O's ahead, or gave O's 2 run lead) and lead runs, of which Cal drove in 40, 5 behind Murray.

Home Runs: Has been very consistent in 4 full seasons with yearly totals of 28 ('82), 27 ('83 & '84) and 26 ('85). Has now hit home runs in all current A.L. parks after connecting for the first time at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium on April 20, '85 off Luis Leal . . . His 8 career homers in Tiger Stadium are a career high for one ballpark on the road (he's hit 54 in Memorial Stadium).

Only 5 shortstops have hit more than 27 home runs in one season as Rip did in both '83 & '84: Ernie Banks-6 times; Vern Stephens and Rico Petrocelli-3 times; Woody Held and Robin Yount ('82)-once each.

Batting .300: Has hit .300 twice ('83-.318, '84-.304) and is one of only 6 Orioles to have done so along with: Frank Robinson-4 times; Eddie Murray & Ken Singleton-3 times; Brooks Robinson and Al Bumbry-twice . . . THE BIRDS AND THE BROWNS

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons, the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in '02 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons ('02 thru '53) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the 2nd division 40 times. They won their only pennant in '44 then lost the world series in 6 games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

In June, 1951, Bill and Charles DeWitt sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck who operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. On September 29, 1953, he sold his shares to a group of Baltimore businessmen who brought major league baseball back to this city after a 51-year lapse.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1984: Injuries hampered him throughout the season . . . Still had hot streak at Charlotte when he hit 5 homers in 16 games . . . Started streak with a 2-homer game vs. Birmingham on June 29 and ended it with a 2-out, 2-run homer in 9th to give O's a 2-1 win over Nashville on July 14.

'83 Baltimore: John served 2 tours of duty with O's . . . He was first called up from Charlotte June 22 to replace Joe Nolan (broken toe) . . . When Nolan recovered, he was optioned to Rochester, then returned to Baltimore Sep. 1.

While he was with the O's, John made 3 big contributions to the cause. His first was a 2-run game-tying double in the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium June 30 off Goose Gossage. Unfortunately, the O's eventually lost in 12. They were his first big league rbi.

Then, on back-to-back nights in Baltimore, Sep. 18 and 19 vs. the Brewers, he delivered "sudden death" game-winning singles. (Is one of only 3 in O's history to produce consecutive "sudden death" gwrbi, see Fred Lynn's biog for more details.)

On the 18th he connected with 1 out in the 9th off Pete Ladd to score Glenn Gulliver with the winning run (O's trailed at one time 0-7 in that game) . . . On the 19th, as a pinch-hitter he singled home the tie-breaker with 2 outs in the 11th off Tom Tellmann.

'83 Charlotte: Was among league leaders in hr (16) and rbi (34) when he first came up to Baltimore . . . Batted .391 (69-27) over 19 games from May 23 thru June 12 with 8 hr & 14 rbi and raised his average from .265 to .313 . . . Hit 7 hrs in a stretch of 11 games (May 31 thru June 11).

1982: Trained with O's for first time in Miami . . . Three of his 1st 6 hrs were grand slams, all at Charlotte.

1981: Ranked among Carolina League leaders in homers (25, 4th), rbi (82, 5th) and batting (.287, 8th) . . . Escaped serious injury on Apr. 14 when club bus overturned and he was thrown thru window . . . Caught in 93 games and played one each at 3b and in of.

'79 & '80: Signed by the late Dick Bowie after an original recommendation by Jim Gilbert . . . Was primarily a 3rd baseman as an amateur, and played in 49 games at 2nd base in 1st pro season at Bluefield in '79 (caught just 5 games).

Heeding Bowie's advice and with instruction from Lance Nichols, he became a fulltime catcher (81 g) at Miami in '80.

Amateur Background: Played at Motlow State C.C. (Tullahoma, TN) in '78, majoring in business and management. Earned all-conference, all-region and all-Tennessee J.C. honors.

Lettered 4 times in baseball and once in football at Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph's High School (graduated '77) . . . Participated in Little League and Babe Ruth programs in Brooklyn, MD . . . Also played semi-pro ball in Baltimore for AAABA Mike's in '77 & '78 and for Johnny's in '79.

Played on Baltimore major league semi-pro all-star team against the Korean National College All-Stars at Memorial Stadium on June 25, '79 and hit a home run . . . He was signed by the O's the next day.

Personal: Hobbies are fishing, sports cars and horseback riding. He and his wife, Tammy, were married Feb. 2, '85.
